AsSalaah

A Muslim’s Prayer
As commanded by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ

“Pray as you have seen me praying”
(Saheeh Al-Bukhari)

“Pray a farewell prayer as if you see Him, but if you do not see Him, surely He sees you”

Foreword

All Praise is due for Allah, and as such we praise Him seek His help and protection. May Allah’s peace and blessings be upon His final Messenger to mankind, Muhammed ibn Abdulllah and all those who followed him in righteousness.

AsSalaah is undoubtedly the most important pillar of Islam after Taw’heed (monotheism) for a Muslim. A Muslim should strive to do the best he can to achieve completeness in his Salaah, since it is a means of bringing one closer to Allah, the Creator and Lord of all that exists.

It is a pleasure to see one of my students having compiled a book on such an important subject. This is Sadaqab-Jaariyah (continuous charity) till it benefits mankind. May Allah accept it. I found this book ‘AsSalaah – A Muslim’s Prayer’, very good in terms of its sequence and ease of understanding. It is like a guide to Salaah. A person can easily find topics related to Salaah and understand it clearly, since it is far from ambiguity and in simple layman English. What more, it is complying with the Qur’an and the Sunnah of the Messenger ﷺ. I hope that in the future we have such books compiled on Hajj, Zakah and Sawm, the other pillars of Islam.

I recommend this book to all those who want to learn to pray like our Prophet ﷺ in order for it to be accepted and also those who are striving in the way of Allah, and especially those who have newly embraced Islam.

Introduction/ Acknowledgement

All Thanks and Praises are due to Allah. As such we Praise Him and seek His Help and Forgiveness. We take refuge with Him from the evil of our souls and the evil of our actions. Whomsoever Allah guides none can misguide, and whomsoever Allah leaves to go astray, none can guide. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship accept Allah alone Who has no partner, and that Muhammed is the slave and his Messenger. The best words are those of the Book of Allah, and the best guidance is the guidance of Muhammed, may Allah’s Peace and Blessings be upon him, his family, his righteous companions and all who follow them in righteousness till the day of Recompense. Every newly invented thing in religion is a cursed innovation, and every cursed innovation is misguidance and all misguidance is in the Hellfire.¹

To Proceed: With the English translation of ‘The Prophet’s Prayer Described’ by Sheikh Nasiruddeen Al Albany (May Allah have Mercy on him) being in short supply, and the unavailability of other authentic books for Salaah, inspired the need for ‘AsSalaah – A Muslims Prayer’. It is divided in three parts, for the ease and understanding of the reader. The prerequisites to the Salaah are dealt with in Part 1; Part 2 explains the Salaah itself and is mostly based on our Sheikh’s book ‘The Prophet’s Prayer Described’, and Part 3 deals with the special prayers and circumstances. Adding pictures of the ‘correct and wrong postures in AsSalaah’ was vital, due to its popular demand. The footnotes are an integral part of the book, without which it is incomplete, since they explain many important references and rules of the concerned topics. The book also aims at benefiting our brothers and sisters who have recently embraced Islam; thus going into intricate details of certain aspects of the Salaah. This was very necessary, since Salaah is the second pillar of Islam after the Shahadatayn and is the first thing a Muslim is asked about, on the Day of Judgement. The Prophet of Allah ﷺ said: ‘The first thing about which a slave (of Allah) shall be questioned on the Day of Judgement will be his Salaah. If his Salaah were found to be in order, he would be considered successful, and would achieve his objective. If there will be some defect or deficiency in it, he would be ruined and be a loser. If there are shortcomings in his Fard (obligatory worship), Allah, the Master of Honor and Glory, will say, “See if my servant has got some optional (nafl) prayers in his account that may make up for the shortcomings in his Fard”; all his deeds will then be examined in this way.’ (Tirmidhi and Saheeh Al-Jami’ Vol. 1 of Sheikh Al Albany)

If a Muslim is careless and weak about fulfilling this fundamental duty, then his Islam is deficient. Let’s consider this warning given to us by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ: ‘The line of demarcation between a man (a Muslim) and Shirk (polytheism) and Kufr (blasphemy) is the giving up of Salaah.’ (Saheeh Al-Muslim). The warning is so stringent that based on it our Sheikh Abdul Aziz ibn Baaz (may Allah have mercy on him) had said that a person who deliberately misses his Salaah, needs to repent and say the shahadatayn once again!

Allah is the Most Merciful, the Most Gracious, and the Owner of all Bounty. To Him we belong and to Him we have to return. A Muslim should try to reach the level when Allah envelops him in His Mercy, and makes His slave a friend. And Salaah is the best way to start.
It is recorded in a Hadeeth Qudsi narrated by Abu Hurairah ﷺ: Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘Allah said, “I will declare war against him who shows hostility to a pious worshipper of Mine; And the most beloved things with which My slave comes nearer to Me, is what I have enjoined upon him; and My slave keeps on coming closer to Me through performing Nawafil (praying or doing extra good deeds besides what is obligatory) till I love him. Then I become his sense of hearing with which he hears, and his sense of sight with which he sees, and his hands with which he grasps, and his legs with which he walks; and if he asks Me, I will give him, and if he asks for My Protection (Refuge), I will Protect him; and I do not hesitate to do anything as I hesitate to take the soul of the believer, for he hates death, and I hate to disappoint him, (but he must die).” (Saheeh Al-Bukhari)

So if a Muslim strives to perfect his deeds for the pleasure of Allah, he finds Allah’s Help in everything he does. Allah will love him and not let him go astray. He the Exalted will guide him in his hearing, his seeing, his grasping and his walking. He the Most Powerful also protects him and will declare a war against anyone who shows hostility towards him. This indeed is a great achievement for a Muslim.

O Muslim brothers! Let’s try to perfect all our deeds, and not let them go to waste. Surely the deeds that were shown by the beloved Messenger to Mankind were divinely guided and the most perfect.

| 2 | It is a hadeeth that quotes Allah, but with the words of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ, which is different from the Speech of Allah, the Qur’an. |
| 3 | ‘…but he must die’, these words appear in the version reported by ibn Hibban (no. 347). |
Allah the Most High says:

َلَقَدْ كَانَ لُكْمُ فِي رَسُولِ اللَّهِ أَسْوَىٰ حَسَنَةٌ لَّمْ كَانَ يَرْجُوُ اللَّهَ وَالَّيْلَوِ الْفَجْرِ وَذَكَرَ اللَّهَ كَثِيرًا َ

Indeed in the Messenger of Allah, you have the best example to follow, for him who hopes for (the Meeting with) Allah and the Last Day, and remembers Allah much.

(Surah Al Ahzaab 33:21)

This is Mercy and Guidance from Allah the All Powerful, the Irresistible, to guide the Muslims to the way of his beloved Messenger, Muhammed (may Allah Peace and Blessings be upon him). How easy things become for a believer when he follows this way, which was chosen by the Sahaba [companions of the Prophet ﷺ], may Allah have mercy on them, and all their righteous followers. In this age of meteorically increasing technology, it is so easy for a Muslim to gain knowledge, for which the Sahaba and the Salaf had to struggle and go through great difficulties.

Allah The Merciful says

إِنَّمَا كَانَ قَوْلُ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ إِذَا دُعُوا إِلَى اللَّهِ وَرَسُولِهِ لَيَحْكُمُ بَيْنَهُمْ أَن يَقُولُوا سَمِعْنَا وَأَطُعْنَا وَأَوْلَيْكَ هُمُ الْمُفْلِحُونَ ﷺ
وَمَن يَطَأَ اللَّهَ وَرَسُولَهُ وَيَحْشِي اللَّهَ وَيَتَقَيْهُ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْفَاتِرُونَ ﷺ

The answer of the faithful believers, when they are summoned to Allah (His Words, the Qur'ân) and His Messenger ﷺ to judge between them is that they say: "We hear and we obey." And such are the prosperous ones (who will live forever in Paradise). And whosoever obeys Allah and His Messenger ﷺ, fears Allah, and keeps his duty (to Him), such are the successful ones. (AnNoor 24:51, 52)
Allah the Majestic also warns:

قُلْ هَلْ نُبِينَكُمْ بِالأَحْسَرَيْنِ أَعْمَالَكُمْ
الْذِينَ ضَلَّ سَعَيْهِمْ فِي الْحَيَاةِ الدَّنْيَا وَهُمْ يَحْسَبُونَ آنِهِمْ يَحْسَبُونَ صَنَاعَهُمْ

Say: "Shall we tell you of those who lose most in respect of their deeds?—
"Those whose efforts have been wasted in this life, while they thought that they were acquiring good by their works?"

(Al Kahf 18:103-104)

Narrated ‘Aisha ﷺ, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said. ‘If somebody innovates something which is not present in our religion (of Islamic monotheism) then that thing (act of worship) will be rejected’. (Bukhari)

In another hadith, narrated ‘Aisha ﷺ the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Whoever performs a (good) deed which we have not ordered (anyone) to do (or is not in accord with our religion) then that deed will be rejected and not be accepted’ (Bukhari)

For the acceptance of the righteous deeds it is stipulated that the following two basic conditions must be fulfilled:

1. Intentions while doing such deeds must be totally for the sake of Allah, without any show off or to gain praise or fame.
2. Such a deed must be performed in accordance with the Sunnah of Allah’s Messenger Muhammed bin Abdullah ﷺ the last of the Prophets and the Messengers.⁴

As Salaah being one of the best forms of worship, and a deed which every Muslim wants to be accepted by Allah, should be performed in no way other than the way Prophet Muhammed ﷺ showed the companions ﷺ, in order for it to be accepted. May Allah grant the Ummah (nation) of Muhammed ﷺ the ability to follow the Truth and the way shown by him ﷺ, and the courage to leave the methodology of their forefathers when it conflicts with the Sunnah of Muhammed ﷺ and the methodology of his companions’ ﷺ.

This book is an effort to help us achieve the sole purpose of our creation, to worship Allah Alone. It has been compiled from various books of Hadeeth⁵, and various booklets whose themes revolve around worship. All the ahadeeth (narrations) mentioned are Saheeh⁶, unless mentioned otherwise. Help was also sought from my teachers amongst whom I am very thankful to Sheikh Zafarul Hasan Al-Madani, whose efforts for the work of Dawah are amazing. One of his old time students, who is also one of my teachers, described him as ‘A walking, talking library’. May Allah preserve him. I also extend my thanks to Dr. Abu Ameenah Bilal Philips and Sheikh Abdul Majeed Ali Hasan without whose teachings this book might not have been possible. May Allah preserve them, Aameen.

I must thank Brother 'Abdul Lateef, who initiated and encouraged this book, and for his immense support throughout this work. Spebial thanks to my close friend and brother Uthman Barry, for ⁵ Hadeeth originally means news, a tale, a story, a talk or a report. In the context of Islamic studies, technically it denotes the report of the words, deeds and approval or disapproval of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ. It is very similar to Sunnah; A Sunnah is a behavioral concept, while Hadeeth is the narration of the behavior. Both are interlinked and sometimes identical.

proof editing and special comments and suggestions that were extremely helpful. Thank you 'Abdul Qayyum, Abu Sakina, Aurangzeb, 'Eisa, Feroze, Jabeel, Rajeef, Ridwan, Sa'ad, Safwan, Shabbir, Shahdab, Shahid Sahab, 'Umer, Ya’hya, and the ones who I might have forgotten to mention, for helping me with this book in one way or the other. Thanks are due to brother Abu Bakr for his photography and Ashraf Ghori for his skillful and much appreciated cover design. To my family, thanks for all your support. Also much thanks to those who did not want their names mentioned, for proof editing this book and going through extreme difficulties correcting my mistakes. The reward is with Allah, InshaAllah, Jazakamullâhukhairan. Last but certainly not least, thanks to my Mother and Father, who have been the strongest pillars of my life. I love you both very much.

May Allah accept this effort, and make it acceptable with others. I hope the readers find what they are looking for with regards to AsSaalah, though no book achieves perfection as long as a created being writes it. Any mistakes and errors in this book are from me or the waswaas of the Satan, and all good is from Allah, the Most Wise and Powerful. The reader is requested to inform us of any error in this book, which can be corrected to benefit all those who read the future editions, InshaAllah.

May Allah’s Peace and Blessings be upon the Messenger of Allah. Allah is the Owner of All Strength, wal’hamdulillahi-Rabbil-‘Aalameen.

Statements of the four Imams with regards to following the Sunnah of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ

Sheikh Nasiruddin Al Albany writes in his book:
It would be beneficial if we gave some of these (statements) here, for perhaps this will admonish or remind those who follow the opinion of the Imams - nay, of those far below the Imams in rank - blindly\(^7\), sticking to their madhhab or views as if these had descended from the heavens! But Allah, Mighty and Sublime, says:

"Follow (O men!) The revelation given to you from your Lord, and follow not, as friends and protectors, other than Him. Little is it you remember of admonition." (Al-A’raaf, 7:3)

1) Abu Haneefah (rahimahullaah)

The first of them is Abu Haneefah Nu'maan ibn Thaabit, whose companions have narrated from him various sayings and diverse warnings, all of them leading to one thing: the obligation to accept the Hadeeth, and to give up following those opinions of the Imams which contradict it:

\(^7\) This is the sort of taqleed (blind following ) which Imam Tahaawi was referring to when he said, "Only someone with party-spirit or a fool blindly follows opinion" - quoted by Ibn 'Aabideen in Rasm al-Muftii (vol. 1, p. 32 from the Compilation of his Essays).
1. "When a hadeeth is found to be \textit{saheeh}, then that is my \textit{madhhab}."\textsuperscript{8}

2. "It is not permitted (\textit{halaal}) for anyone to accept our views if they do not know from where we got them."\textsuperscript{9}

In one narration, \textsuperscript{8} Ibn 'Aabideen in \textit{al-Haashiyah} (1/63), and in his essay \textit{Rasm al-Mufti} (1/4 from the \textit{Compilation of the Essays of Ibn 'Aabideen}), Shaikh Saalih al-Fulaani in \textit{Eeqaaz al-Himam} (p. 62) & others. Ibn 'Aabideen quoted from \textit{Sharh al-Hidaayah} by Ibn al-Shahnah al-Kabeer, the teacher of Ibn al-Humaam, as follows:

"When a hadeeth contrary to the Madhhab is found to be saheeh, one should act on the hadeeth, and make that his madhhab. Acting on the hadeeth will not invalidate the follower's being a Hanafi, for it is authentically reported that Abu Haneefah said, 'When a hadeeth is found to be saheeh, then that is my madhhab', and this has been related by \textit{Imam} Ibn 'Abdul Barr from Abu Haneefah and from other \textit{Imams}.

This is part of the completeness of the knowledge and piety of the \textit{Imams}, for they indicated by saying this that they were not versed in the whole of the \textit{Sunnah}, and \textit{Imam} Shaafi'i has elucidated this thoroughly (see later). It would happen that they would contradict a \textit{sunnah} because they were unaware of it, so they commanded us to stick to the \textit{Sunnah} and regard it as part of their Madhhab. May Allaah shower His mercy on them all.

\textsuperscript{9} Ibn 'Abdul Barr in \textit{Al-Intiqaa' fi Fadaa'il ath-Thalaathah al- A'immah al-Fuqahaa'}
(p. 145), Ibn al-Qayyim in \textit{Il'am al-Mooqi'een} (2/309), Ibn 'Aabideen in his \textit{Footnotes on Al-Bahr ar-Raa'iq} (6/293) and in \textit{Rasm al-Mufti} (pp. 29,32) &
Sha'raani in \textit{Al-Meezaan} (1/55) with the second narration. The last narration was collected by 'Abbaas ad-Dawri in \textit{At-Taareekh} by Ibn Ma'een (6/77/1) with a saheeh sanad on the authority of Zafar, the student of Imam Abu Haneefah. Similar narrations exist on the authority of Abu Haneefah's companions Zafar, Abu Yoosuf and 'Aafiyah ibn Yazeed; cf. \textit{Eeqaaz} (p. 52).
Ibn al-Qayyim firmly certified its authenticity on the authority of Abu Yoosuf in \textit{Il'am al-Mooqi'een} (2/344). The addition to the second narration is referenced by the editor of \textit{Eeqaaz} (p. 65) to Ibn 'Abdul Barr, Ibn al-Qayyim and others.

If this is what they say of someone who does not know their evidence, what would be their response to one who knows that the evidence contradicts their saying, but still gives verdicts opposed to the evidence?! Therefore, reflect on
"It is prohibited (haraam) for someone who does not know my evidence to give verdicts (fataawa) on the basis of my words."

3. Another narration adds, "... for we are mortals: we say one thing one day, and take it back the next day." In another narration, "Woe to you, O Ya'qub! Do not write down everything you hear from me, for it happens that I hold one opinion today and reject it tomorrow, or hold one opinion tomorrow and reject it the day after tomorrow."\(^{11}\)

this saying, for it alone is enough to smash blind following of opinion; that is why one of the muqallid shaikhs, when I criticised his giving a verdict using Abu Haneefah's words without knowing the evidence, refused to believe that it was a saying of Abu Haneefah!

\(^{10}\) i.e. Imam Abu Haneefah's illustrious student, Abu Yoosuf (rahimahullah).

\(^{11}\) This was because the Imam would often base his view on Qiyaas (Analogy), after which a more potent analogy would occur to him, or a hadeeth of the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alaihi wa sallam) would reach him, so he would accept that and ignore his previous view. Sha'raani's words in Al-Meezaan (1/62) are summarised as:

“Our belief, as well as that of every researcher into Imam Abu Haneefah (radi Allaahu 'anhu), is that, had he lived until the recording of the Sharee'ah, and the journeys of the Preservers of Hadeeth to the various cities and frontiers in order to collect and acquire it, he would have accepted it and ignored all the analogies he had employed. The amount of qiyaas in his Madhhab would have been just as little as that in other Madhhabs, but since the evidences of the Sharee'ah had been scattered with the Successors and their successors, and had not been collected in his lifetime, it was necessary that there be a lot of qiyaas in his Madhhab compared to that of other Imams. The later scholars then made their journeys to find and collect ahaadeeth from the various cities and towns and wrote them down; hence, some ahaadeeth of the Sharee'ah explained others. This is the reason behind the large amount of qiyaas in his Madhhab, whereas there was little of it in other Madhhabs.”

Abul-Hasanaat Al-Lucknowi quoted his words in full in An-Naafi' al-Kabeer (p. 135), endorsing and expanding on it in his footnotes, so whoever wishes to consult it should do so there.
3. "When I say something contradicting the Book of Allah the Exalted or what is narrated from the Messenger ﷺ (hadeeth), then ignore my saying."\(^{12}\)

Since this is the justification for why Abu Haneefah has sometimes unintentionally contradicted the authentic ahaadeeth - and it is a perfectly acceptable reason, for Allaah does not burden a soul with more than it can bear - it is not permissible to insult him for it, as some ignorant people have done. In fact, it is obligatory to respect him, for he is one of the Imams of the Muslims through whom this Deen has been preserved and handed down to us, in all its branches; also, for he is rewarded under any circumstance: whether he is correct or wrong. Nor is it permissible for his devotees to continue sticking to those of his statements which contradict the authentic ahaadeeth, for those statements are effectively not part of his Madhhab, as the above sayings show. Hence, these are two extremes, and the truth lies in between. "Our Lord! Forgive us, and our brethren who came before us into the Faith; and leave not, in our hearts, any rancour against those who have believed. Our Lord! You are indeed Full of Kindness, Most Merciful." (Al-Hashr 59:10)

\(^{12}\) Al-Fulaani in Eeqaaz al-Himam (p. 50), tracing it to Imam Muhammad and then saying, “This does not apply to the mujtahid, for he is not bound to their views anyway, but it applies to the muqallid.”

Sha'raani expanded on that in Al-Meezaan (1/26):

“If it is said: 'what should I do with the ahaadeeth which my Imam did not use, and which were found to be authentic after his death?' The answer which is fitting for you is: 'That you act on them, for had your Imam come across them and found them to be authentic; he would have instructed you to act on them, because all the Imams were captives in the hand of the Sharee'ah.' He who does so will have gathered all the good with both his hands, but he who says, 'I will not act according to a hadeeth unless my Imam did so', he will miss a great amount of benefit, as is the case with many followers of the Imams of the Madhhabs. It would be better for them to act on every hadeeth found to be authentic after the Imam's time, hence implementing the will of the Imams; for it is our firm belief about the Imams that had they lived longer and come to know of those ahaadeeth which were found authentic after their time, they would have definitely accepted and acted according to them, ignoring any analogies they may have previously made, and any views they may have previously held."
Allah the Most Wise says:
"But no, by Your Lord, they can have no (real) faith, until they make you judge in all disputes between them, and find in their souls no resistance against your decisions, but accept them with the fullest conviction." (An-Nisaa':65)

2) Maalik ibn Anas (rahimahullaah)

As for Imam Maalik ibn Anas, he said:

1. "Truly I am only a mortal: I make mistakes (sometimes) and I am correct (sometimes). Therefore, look into my opinions: all that agrees with the Book and the Sunnah, accept it; and all that does not agree with the Book and the Sunnah, ignore it."

2. "Everyone after the Prophet ﷺ will have his sayings accepted and rejected - not so the Prophet ﷺ."

13 Ibn 'Abdul Barr in Jaami' Bayaan al-'Ilm (2/32), Ibn Hazm, quoting from the former in Usool al-Ahkaam (6/149), & similarly Al-Fulaani (p. 72)

14 This is well known among the later scholars to be a saying of Maalik. Ibn 'Abdul Haadi declared it saheeh in Irshaad as- Saalik (227/1); Ibn 'Abdul Barr in Jaami' Bayaan al-'Ilm (2/91) & Ibn Hazm in Usool al-Ahkaam (6/145, 179) had narrated it as a saying of Al-Hakam ibn 'Utaiba and Mujaahid; Taqi ad-Deen as-Subki gave it, delighted with its beauty, in al- Fataawaa (1/148) as a saying of Ibn 'Abbaas, and then said: “These words were originally those of Ibn 'Abbaas and Mujaahid, from whom Maalik (radi Allaaahu 'anhu) took them, and he became famous for them." It seems that Imaam Ahmad then took this saying from them, as Abu Daawood has said in Masaa'il of Imaam Ahmad (p. 276): "I heard Ahmad say, 'Everyone is accepted and rejected in his opinions, with the exception of the Prophet (sallallaahu 'alaihi wa sallam)."
3. Ibn Wahb said: "I heard Maalik being asked about cleaning between the toes during ablution. He said, 'The people do not have to do that.' I did not approach him until the crowd had lessened, when I said to him, 'We know of a sunnah about that.' He said, 'What is that?' I said, 'Laith ibn Sa'd, Ibn Lahee'ah and 'Amr ibn al-Haarith narrated to us from Yazeed ibn 'Amr al-Ma'aafiri from Abu 'Abdur-Rahman al-Hubuli from Mustawrid ibn Shaddaad al-Qurashi who said, 'I saw the Messenger of Allah rubbing between his toes with his little finger.' He said, 'This hadeeth is sound; I had not heard of it at all until now.' Afterwards, I heard him being asked about the same thing, on which he ordered cleaning between the toes."

Allah the Everlasting says:
"Then let those beware who withstand the Messenger's order, lest some trial befall them or a grievous penalty be inflicted on them." (An-Noor, 24:63)

3) Shaf'i (rahimahullaah)

As for Imam Shaf’i, the quotations from him are most numerous and beautiful, and his followers were the best in sticking to them:

15 From the Introduction to Al-Jarh wat-Ta’deel of Ibn Abi Haatim, pp. 31-2.
16 Ibn Hazm says in Usool al-Ahkaam (6/118):
‘Indeed, all the fuqahaa whose opinions are followed were opposed to taqleed, and they forbade their companions from following their opinion blindly. The sternest among them in this regard was Shaafi’i (rahimahullah), for he repeatedly emphasised, more than anyone else, following the authentic narrations and accepting whatever the proof dictated; he also made himself innocent of being followed totally, and announced this to those around him.
1. "The sunnahs of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ reach, as well as escape from, every one of us. So whenever I voice my opinion, or formulate a principle, where something contrary to my view exists on the authority of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then the correct view is what the Messenger of Allah ﷺ has said, and it is my view."\(^{17}\)

2. "The Muslims are unanimously agreed that if a sunnah of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ is made clear to someone, it is not permitted (halaal) for him to leave it for the saying of anyone else."\(^{18}\)

3. "If you find in my writings something different to the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, then speak on the basis of the Sunnah of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ, and leave what I have said." In one narration: "... then follow it (the Sunnah), and do not look sideways at anyone else's saying."\(^{19}\)

May this benefit him in front of Allaah, and may his reward be of the highest, for he was the cause of great good.”

\(^{17}\) Related by Haakim with a continuous sanad up to Shaafi’i, as in Taareekh Dimashq of Ibn 'Asaakir (15/1/3), I'laam al- Mooqi'een (2/363, 364) & Eeqaaz (p. 100).

\(^{18}\) Ibn al-Qayyim (2/361) & Fulaani (p. 68)

\(^{19}\) Harawi in Dhamm al-Kalaam (3/47/1), Khateeb in Al-Ihtijaaj bi ash-Shaafi’i (8/2), Ibn 'Asaakir (15/9/10), Nawawi in Al- Majmoo’ (1/63), Ibn al-Qayyim (2/361) & Fulaani (p. 100); the second narration is from Hilyah al-Awliyaa’ of Abu Nu'aim.
4. "When a hadeeth is found to be saheeh, then that is my madhhab."\footnote{Nawawi in Al-Majmoo' (1/63), Sha'raani (1/57), giving its sources as Haakim and Baihaqi, & Fulaani (p. 107). Sha'raani said, "Ibn Hazm said, 'That is ... found to be saheeh by him or by any other Imaam.'" His saying given next confirms this understanding. Nawawi says: “Our companions acted according to this in the matter of tathweeb (calling to prayer in addition to the adhaan), the conditions on coming out of ihraam due to illness, and other issues well-known in the books of the Madhhab. Among those of our companions who are reported to have passed judgment on the basis of the hadeeth (i.e. rather than the saying of Shaafi'i) are Abu Ya'qoob al-Buweeti and Abu l-Qaasim ad-Daariki. Of our companions from the muhadditheen, Imaam Abu Bakr Al-Baihaqi and others employed this approach. Many of our earliest companions, if they faced an issue for which there was a hadeeth, and the madhhab of Shaafi'i was contrary to it, would act according to the hadeeth and give verdicts based on it, saying, 'The madhhab of Shaafi'i is whatever agrees with the hadeeth.' Shaikh Abu 'Amr (Ibn as-Salaah) says, 'Whoever among the Shaafi'i is found a hadeeth contradicting his Madhhab, he would consider whether he fulfilled the conditions of ijtihaad generally, or in that particular topic or issue, in which case he would be free to act on the hadeeth; if not, but nevertheless he found it hard to contradict the hadeeth after further analysis, he would not be able to find a convincing justification for opposing the hadeeth. Hence, it would be left for him to act according to the hadeeth if an independent imaam other than Shaafi'i had acted on it, and this would be justification for his leaving the Madhhab of his Imaam in that issue.' What he (Abu 'Amr) has said is correct and established. Allaah knows best.”

There is another possibility which Ibn as-Salaah forgot to mention: what would one do if he did not find anyone else who acted according to the hadeeth? This has been answered by Taqi ad-Deen as-Subki in his article, The Meaning of Shaafi'i’s saying, "When a hadeeth is found to be saheeh, then that is my madhhab" (p. 102, vol. 3): “For me, the best thing is to follow the hadeeth. A person should imagine himself in front of the Prophet!(sallallaahu 'alaihi wa sallam), just having heard it from him: would there be leeway for him to delay acting on it? No, by Allaah ... and everyone bears a responsibility according to his understanding.”

A person should imagine himself in front of the Prophet!(sallallaahu 'alaihi wa sallam), just having heard it from him: would there be leeway for him to delay acting on it? 5. Once he said to Imam Ahmed ibn Hanbal, "You are more knowledgeable about hadith than I, so when a hadith is saheeh, inform me of it, whether it is from Kufah, Basrah or Syria, so that I may take the view of the hadith, as long as it is saheeh."\[21\]

The Tahara (Purification)

Allah the Almighty says in the Qur’an:

يَسْأَلُهَا الَّذِينَ عَامِنُوا إِذَا قَمَّمُوا إِلَى الصَّلَاةِ فَاغْسَلُوا وَجُوَهُكَمْ وَأَيْدُيُكُمْ إِلَى
المَرَافِقِ وَأَمْسِحُوا بَرْدٌ وَسَكِمْ وَأَرْجُلُكُمْ إِلَى الْكَعْبَيْنِ

O you who believe! When you rise for prayer, wash your faces and your hands up to the elbows and lightly rub your heads and (wash) your feet up to the ankles. (AlMaaidah: 6)

AsSalaah is one of the few acts of worship, which requires a person to be in the state of complete Tahara (Purification). Making Wudu (ablution) is compulsory in order to make AsSalaah (if one is not in the state of Wudu)

Abu Hurairah reported that the Messenger of Allah said, “Allah does not accept the Salaah (prayer) of one who nullified his ablution until he performs it again.” And he also said,’ Verily the prayer of a person is not complete until he has made an ablution which has included the various parts of the body…”

Before starting the Wudu it is important that the water is clean and pure, free from any najasah (impurities).

Actions required for Wudu (Ablution):
(1) Niyah (The Intention)
Before you start you should have the niyah to make Wudu. Niyah is the intention made in the heart and not an act of the tongue. So one 31 - SallAllahu-'alayhi-wasallam – May Allah’s Peace and blessings be upon him.

32 Al Bukhari, Muslim, AbuDawood and Tirmidhi
33 At-Tabaraani
34 Water remains pure as long as it’s original colour or taste is not changed due to the mixing of an impure substance.
should make the niyah in the heart as the Prophet ﷺ used to say, ‘Every action is based on intention, and everyone shall have what he intended…’ (Bukhari)

(2) Mentioning the name of Allah at the beginning

A hadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ states “There is no Salaah for the one who does not have an ablution, and there is no ablution for one who does not mention Allah’s name upon it.”

That is, saying:

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ

Bismillah

In the Name of Allah

\[\text{\textsuperscript{35}}\] Reported by Ahmed, Abi Dawood and Ibn Majah with a weak chain of narrators. At-Tirmidhi reported something similar to the above from Sa’eed bin Zaid, and Abu Sa’eed, and Ahmed said that nothing is authenticated in it. Others hold the above to be a hasan hadeeth and a mustahab (desirable) act, hence allowing to do so. (*A hasan hadeeth is like a Saheeh, but for the fact that some of its narrators are found to have defective memory in comparison to the narrators of a Saheeh hadeeth and is inferior to a Saheeh). However Nasa’i has reported a Saheeh in which we find the command of the Prophet ﷺ to start wudu by saying بِسْمِ اللَّهِ.
(3) Washing the palms and hands up to the wrist
The hands should be washed well up to the wrist, with soap if required and cleaning between the fingers is from the fitrah.\(^{36}\)

(4) Rinsing the mouth and sniffing water into the nostrils
The mouth should be rinsed with a handful of water and then water should be sniffed into the nostrils with the right hand and expelled by the left. Rinsing the mouth with a handful of water and sniffing with the nose can be done at the same time, as proven by the Sunnah.\(^{37}\)

(5) Washing the face
This requires washing and rubbing the face with two handfuls of water from the top of the forehead to the bottom of the jaw, and from ear to ear. The Prophet ﷺ used to pour water with both hands, from under his jaw into his beard, and run his fingers into the roots of his beard and clean it.

(6) Washing the arms to the elbows
The Prophet ﷺ used to wash his right arm up to the elbow and then the left, in the same manner.

(7) Wiping the head and cleaning the ears
The Prophet ﷺ would wipe his head with wet palms only once, from front to back and subsequently clean the front and back of his ears, with the wet fingertips. He did this in three different ways:

\(^{36}\) ‘Aa’isha (ۚ) said: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: “Ten (actions) are part of the fitrah [natural inclinations of man]: trimming the moustache, letting the beard grow, using the siwaak (tooth-stick), rinsing the nose with water, clipping the nails, washing the finger joints, plucking the armpit hairs, shaving the pubes and washing oneself with water after relieving oneself.” Zakariyya said: Mus’ab said: And I forgot the tenth but it may have been rinsing the mouth with water. (Muslim)

\(^{37}\) Bukhari and Muslim.
a) Wiping all over the head
Abdullah ibn Zaid reported that the Prophet ﷺ wiped his entire head with his hands (palms). He started with the front of his head, then moved them to the back, then returned his hands to the front. (Bukhari, Muslim, Ibn Majah, Abi Dawood). This means that the head should be wiped completely front to back, not just a part of the head.

b) Wiping over the turban only
Bilal reported that the Prophet ﷺ said, ‘Wipe over your shoes and head-covering.’ (Ahmed)
‘Umar once said, ‘May Allah not purify the one who does not consider wiping over the turban to be purifying.’ (Fiqh us-Sunnah)
Al-Bukhari, Al-Muslim and others have related many ahadeeth on this topic.

c) Wiping over the front part of the scalp and turban
Al Mughira ibn Shu’bah said that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ made ablution and wiped over the front portion of his scalp, his turban and his socks. (Muslim)

There is no hadeeth depicting that he ﷺ wiped over a part of his head. From the practice of the Prophet ﷺ, we find that it is not sufficient to just wipe over the locks of hair that proceed from the head or along the sides of the head. We must wipe over the entire head from front to back as mentioned earlier.

It should be noted that the Prophet ﷺ did the wiping of head and cleaning of ears only once. I mention this since a lot of people due to lack of knowledge, tend to do more than required, and also wipe their necks, which is not from the Sunnah. This either implies that the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ is not enough, or that they are trying to please Allah more than the Prophet ﷺ did?

(8) Washing the feet and the heels
This has been confirmed through mutawaatir reports (from innumerable sources) from the Prophet ﷺ concerning his actions and statements.

Ibn Umar said, “The Prophet ﷺ lagged behind us in one of our travels. He caught up with us after we had delayed the afternoon prayer. We started to make ablution and were wiping over our feet, when the Prophet ﷺ said ‘Woe to the heels, save them from the Hell fire.’ repeating it two or three times.” 38 Therefore Wudu of this part of the body encompasses the feet up to and including the heels. It was also a practice of the Prophet ﷺ to clean between the toes with the little finger. But if one is wearing shoes, sandals or socks it is sufficient to just wipe the upper parts 39 with wet hands, as evident from the Sunnah, and pray in them.

The Prophet ﷺ fixed the period of Mas’ha (wiping over the socks40) for three days and nights for a traveller and one day and a night for the resident person,41 provided that he was in a state of wudu when he wore them since the Prophet ﷺ once did not remove them while performing ablution saying, ‘I had put them on after performing wudu.’ 42 However in case of

39 Ali said, “If the religion were based on opinion, it would be more important to wipe over the under parts of the khuff than the upper parts, but I have seen Allah’s Messenger ﷺ wiping over the upper parts of the leathes socks.” (Abi Dawood)
40 The socks should be thick enough to avoid any impurities entering through them. The socks that are mentioned in this hadeeth are khiffaaf (leather socks).
41 Muslim.
42 Bukhari and Muslim.
experiencing orgasm, ejaculation or sexual impurity, he commanded to remove the socks (sandals or shoes, and make the ghusl).43

Most of these steps can be found in the hadeeth narrated by Humraan, the manumitted slave of Uthmaan bin Affan, in the Saheehain (Saheeh Al-Bukhari and Saheeh Al-Muslim) and in other narrations.

Other aspects of the Wudu:

(1) Dental Hygiene

It is a Sunnah of the Prophet (ﷺ) to use the tooth stick (siwak, miswak) regularly. He also encouraged the Muslims strongly, to use the siwak saying, ‘Were it not to be hardship on my Ummah (community of Muslims), I would have ordered them to use the siwak (tooth stick) for every ablution.’ (Malik, Shafi’, al-Baihaqi and al-Hakim).

Mother of the believers Ai’sha (ﷺ) reported that the Prophet (ﷺ) said, ‘The miswak purifies the mouth and is pleasing to the Lord.’ (Ahmed, Nasai, Tirmidhi). The miswak also prevents and cures many mouth diseases, due to the antiseptic and antibiotic chemicals in it. A Muslim should make a regular practice of using the miswak, as he takes the utmost care for his hygiene.

(2) Washing the body parts thrice

It is obligatory for one to wash the body parts at least once while making Wudu and a Sunnah to wash them thrice. Anyone doing it more than thrice has transgressed the limits, as the hadeeth mentions, the Prophet (ﷺ) said ‘If anyone performs actions of the ablution more than thrice, he has done wrong, transgressed, and acted wickedly.’ (Nasai, Ibn Majah) This hadeeth also indicates that in the acts of ibaadah (worship), doing more than what the Prophet (ﷺ) has done or taught is evil.

43 Nasaa’i and Tirmidhi.
Supplications after the Wudu

It is a Sunnah to say after the Wudu:

أَشْهَدُ أَنَّ لَا إِلَهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ (وَحْدَهُ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ) وَأُشْهَدُ أَنَّ مُحَمَّدًا عَبْدُهُ وَرَسُولُهُ

Ash-hadu anLaailaha illAllah, wa-ash-hadu anna Muhammadan ‘abduhu wa rasooluh

I bear witness that there is no god but Allah, He is the Unique with no partners, and I bear witness that Muhammed is the slave and Messenger of Allah. (Muslim, Ahmed)

AND

آَلِلَّهُمَّ اجْعَلْنِي مِنَ الْتَّوَا بَينَ وَاجْعَلْنِي مِنَ الْمُتَطَهْرِينَ

Allahummaj-‘alni mina ttawwabeen, waj’alni min almutataahireen

O Allah make me among those who are penitent and make me among those who are purified. (Tirmidhi)

Nullification of the Wudu

The ahadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ, and the ijma’ (consensus) of the scholars of the Sunnah conclude that the following acts nullify the wudu of a person, and require him to repeat it:

1. Sexual intercourse with or without ejaculation.
2. Anything that comes out of the sexual/excretory organs including passing of wind. “If a person passes wind during the Salaah, he has to repeat the complete Salaah.” (Abi Dawood)
3. Menses (in case of women) till its period is over.
4. Deep sleep that makes a person completely unaware of his surroundings.
5. Loss of consciousness.
4. Intentionally touching the sexual organ without any ‘barrier’ (clothing) in between.
5. Vomiting
Actions that do not nullify the Wudu

Similarly there is an ijma of the scholars of hadeeth, taking into account all the evidences from the Sunnah, that the following acts do not nullify one's wudu:

1. Touching or kissing your spouse that does not lead to sexual tendencies.
2. Bleeding.
3. Doubting whether or not one has passed wind.
4. After washing a dead person (It is not obligatory but mustahab\(^{44}\) to make Wudu and ghusl.)

Tayammum

In case a person does not find any water to make Wudu he can make tayammum as mentioned in the Qur'an:

"...and (if) you find no water, then perform Tayammum with clean earth and rub therewith your faces and hands, Allah does not want to place you in difficulty, but He wants to purify you, and to complete His favor to you that you may be thankful." (Surah Al-Maaidah: 6)

Tayammum is defined by Dr. Muhammad Taqi-uddin Al-Hilali and Dr. Muhammad Mushin Khan\(^{45}\) in their English translation of the meaning of the Noble Qur'an, as - "Strike your hands on the earth and then pass the palm of each on the back of the other and then blow off the dust from them and then pass (rub) them on your faces."\(^{46}\)

Tayammum can also be done if one is in the state of Janabah (sexual defilement) and cannot find any water. This should be sufficient for him to make AsSalaah.\(^{47}\)

Ghusl

If a person is impure due to sexual intercourse or nocturnal emission (wet dream), then it is obligatory for him/her to make the ghusl [complete body-bath as described by the Prophet ﷺ](Bukhari and Muslim). And wudu is the first requirement to do ghusl, after washing the private parts.

The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘If one of you sits between her (your wife’s) legs and penetrates her; ghusl becomes obligatory’ (in one narration) … even if he does not ejaculate. From other narrations we know that the ghusl becomes obligatory for both, the husband and the wife.

The Prophet ﷺ also used to order the one who newly embraced Islam, to take the ghusl. And he ﷺ refrained from teaching the Qur’an when he was in the state of Janabah (sexual impurity). He ﷺ also recommended making wudu, if one ‘had sexual intercourse with his wife and wanted to repeat.’

The following hadeeth describes the manner in which the Prophet ﷺ made ghusl:

Narrated Ai’sha ﷺ: ‘Whenever Allah’s Messenger ﷺ took ghusl after sexual intercourse; he would begin by washing his hands, then pour water with his right hand on his left hand and wash his sexual organ. He would then perform wudu, then take some water and run his fingers through the roots of his hair. Then he would pour three handfuls (of water) on his head, then pour water over the rest of his body and subsequently wash his feet.’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

It is forbidden to wash the private parts with the right hand. (Bukhari)
A person should always try to make ghuls in the above manner whenever desired, since this would avoid touching ones private parts in between the ghuls.

The Place of AsSalaah

The Prophet ﷺ said, in a hadeth collected by Imam Muslim (may Allah have Mercy on him), ‘…unlike any other messenger… the whole earth has been made a place of worship (mosque) and purification for me and my ummah’55 This is explained by the muhadditheen (scholars of hadeth) that a Muslim can and should pray when it is time for AsSalaah, anywhere he wishes. As long as there is no obvious najasah in it and it is not a place of worship forbidden by the Prophet ﷺ.

Forbidden places of Worship

It is not allowed to pray on the earth that has najasah (impurities) on it, unless it has dried out. (Muslim)

The Prophet ﷺ forbade the Muslims to pray at public baths, graveyards and camel pens. (Abi Dawood)

He ﷺ also warned the Muslims in his last days: ‘Beware of those who preceded you and used to take the graves of their prophets and righteous men as places of worship, but you must not take graves as mosques (turn graves into mosques, or have graves in mosques); I forbid you to do that.’ (Muslim)

55 Muslim, Ahmed, Siraj and Baihaqi
The Dress for AsSalaah

For Men

It is forbidden for a Muslim to wear tight and figure hugging clothes, the like of jeans and tight trousers, which reveal the shapes of the awrah and private parts. It should also not resemble a woman's dress, since Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘He is not one of us who imitates women, nor is she who imitates a man.’ (Ahmed)

The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘None of you must pray in a single garment of which no part comes over the shoulder.’ (Bukhari, Muslim).

However it is sufficient if the awrah is covered with a single cloth, when one does not have more than this, as we will come to know from the following narration:

Muhammed ibn al-Munkadir reported that Jabir ﷺ prayed wearing only an izar (lower garment wrapped around the waist) tied at the back, and his other clothes were on a hook. Someone said to him (questioning), ‘Are you praying in one garment?’ he said ‘... Who among us [the companions of the Prophet ﷺ] had two garments at the time of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ?’ Jabir ﷺ did so, to teach the one who would ask that wearing one garment while praying is acceptable. This is how many companions (may Allah be pleased with them) of the Prophet ﷺ used to dress (in a single garment due to poverty), before the spread of Islam and the victory of Muslims.

It is preferable and recommended to wear two loose garments, unless the single garment doesn’t reveal the awrah (private parts; for men it is navel to knees) while praying and if one can’t afford more. One should also strive to wear one’s best clothes in front of Allah. It was 56 The reason for this is that they did not have trousers, and they would wear their izars tied at the back, since this was more concealing when they did rukoo’ and sujood; Fath AlBari, Al-Salafiyyah edition, 1/467.

reported that Hassan used to put on his best clothes while praying, and this is what he learned from his grandfather (May Allah’s Peace and Blessings be upon him). The Prophet used to say, ‘Allah is Beautiful and He loves beauty.’ (Muslim)

It is not compulsory for men to wear a head covering for the Salaah to be accepted, since we do not find any such command or recommendation of the Prophet in any of the books of hadeeth. However we also do not find anything contrary to it from the practice of the Prophet; it was a Sunnah of the Prophet to keep his head covered mostly, whether in or out of Salaah. 58

For Women
While praying a Muslimah’s dress should be such that it covers her whole body from head to toe, leaving the face and the hands (below the wrist).
It should be noted that the hijab (outer covering normally worn while going out of the house, or in presence of non mahram men) of the sahabiyah [female followers of the Prophet], used to be so long that it would drag on the ground, as instructed by the Prophet of Allah.

58 Sheikh Nasiruddeen Al Albany (May Allah's mercy be upon him) (in Al-Qawl Al-mubin fi akhta' Al-musallin by Mashhur Hussain on page # 58 of the 2nd edition) said: “Praying bareheaded is makruh (disliked).” “It is not established at all that the Messenger ever prayed outside the pilgrimage bare headed, without a turban/cap. Whoever thinks he did so then he should bring the proof. If he had done so, it would have been recorded. The narration attributed to Ibn 'Abbaas that the Prophet would sometimes remove his cap and place it as a sutrah in front of him is da’eeef (weak).”
The Mother of believers Umm Salamah said that one woman asked: ‘My cloak (hijab, outer clothing) is long, and sometimes the areas I walk trough have najasah; my cloak drags on these areas and get najas (impure). The Prophet heard about this and said: ‘...after that (walking through) the clean earth (areas), purifies (your clothes). (Ahmed, Malik, Tirmidhi and Abi Dawood.)

It was also asked to the Prophet: ‘Can a woman be in a kamees (long shirt) and a khimar without wearing a lower garment (in prayer)? He replied: ‘If the kamees is ample (long) and covers the (top) surface of her feet.’ (Abi Dawood)

Hence thin, transparent, translucent, and tight clothes which show the shape of the body of a woman (which is awrah) should not be worn unless with a thick outer hijab in or out of the Salaah. AsSalaah in such clothes will be void, since covering the awrah is compulsory in Salaah, which is evident from the various ahadeeth mentioned here.

The dress of a Muslimah should not resemble a man’s, since Allah’s Messenger said: ‘He is not one of us who imitates women, nor is she who imitates a man.’ Neither should it be strikingly attractive to men, but plain and simple. Wearing a niqab (veil on the face) is only obligatory outside Salaah and not a requirement during.

59 Khimar - thick and loose outer garment that covers from the head, usually to the feet or at least below the abdomen.
60 Ahmed
61 The argument of some people in the west, that the khimar or Hijab attracts people’s attention in their societies, is totally false. If so, then why is that the highest number of rapes and harassment in the world are in the west, where hardly any woman is covered decently, compared to the Middle East, where you hardly see Muslim women without the Hijab? The main purpose of the Hijab for women in Islam is protection, which is being well served, Al’hamdulillah.
Hence the minimum requirement of the hijab for women during AsSalaah includes a loose outer garment that covers the entire body, including the feet, and excluding the face and hands below the wrist.

Facing the Qiblah (Al Ka’bah)

When the Messenger of Allah ﷺ stood for prayer, he would face the Ka’bah in both obligatory and voluntary prayers, and he also ordered such, ‘…when you stand for prayer, perform ablution perfectly, then face the Qiblah and say Takbeer.’ (Bukhari)

He ﷺ also used to say: ‘What is between the east and the west is Qiblah.’ (Tirmidhi and Hakim)

So if one finds it difficult finding the direction of Al Ka’bah, he should take the above narration into consideration and face anywhere between the east and west and pray.

‘Sometimes when he ﷺ intended to pray non-obligatory prayers on his camel, he would make it face the Qiblah, say Takbeer, and pray towards wherever his mount turned its face.’ (Abi Dawood & Ibn Hibbaan)

The following ayah implies the above\(^{62}\)

فَأَيْنَمَّا تُؤْلُوا فَأَيْنَمَّ وَجَاهَهُ اللَّهِ

Wherever you turn, there is the Face of Allah (Al Baqarah, 2: 11)

\(^{62}\) Muslim, Tirmidhi
The Obligation of the Sutrah

Sutrah means a screen or a covering. In the context of prayer, it refers to an object just beyond the place of prostration, between which nothing should pass. The Prophet ﷺ used to say, ‘Do not pray except towards a sutrah, and do not let anyone pass in front of you, but if someone continues (to try to pass) then fight him, for he has a companion (i.e. a shaytan) with him.’ (Ibn Khuzaimah in his Saheeh 1/93/1)

The ahadeeth regarding the command and practice from the Prophet ﷺ, of the sutrah are so many (mutawaatir), that almost all the scholars of the Sunnah have an ijma of it being obligatory for Salaah.

It has been varyingly reported that ‘when the Prophet ﷺ prayed (in an open space where there was nothing to use as a sutrah) he would plant a spear in the ground in front of him and pray towards it with the people behind him’ 63. Sometimes ‘he would set his mount (camel) sideways and pray towards it’ 64, but this is not the same as praying in the resting place of camels, which he forbade 65; and sometimes ‘he would take his saddle, set it lengthwise and pray towards its end.’ 66

The Prophet ﷺ used to say: ‘A man’s prayer is cut off when there is nothing such as the end of a saddle 67 in front of him, by a (menstruating, mature) woman, a donkey or a black dog’, ‘...the black dog is a shaytan’. (Muslim, Abi Dawood and Ibn Khuzaimah)

The Times for AsSalaah

Primarily AsSalaah can be divided into two types:

1. The Fard (Obligatory)

The Fard prayers are prayed five times a day. The timings of which are well described in the following hadeeth:

Narrated ‘Abdullah ibn ‘Umar رضی الله عنه; The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘The time for the Dhuhr (noon) prayer is when the sun passes the meridian and a man’s shadow is the same length as his height. It lasts until the time of ‘Asr (afternoon) prayer. The time of the ‘Asr prayer is as long as the sun has not become yellow (before it’s setting)’ [in another narration, ‘when the sun is white and clear’ or ‘while the sun is high’]. The time of Maghrib (sunset) prayer is as long as the twilight has not disappeared. The time of Maghrib prayer is as long as the twilight has not disappeared. The time of 68 Unfortunately it is very wrongly understood by some Muslims, that there is no obligation in religion, since the ayah in Surah Al Baqarah says:

لاَ إِكْرَاهَ فِي الدِّينِ

There is no compulsion in religion...

However the correct understanding of this ayah (there is no compulsion in religion) as explained by the mufassireen, is that this ayah applies to those who are outside the bounds of Islam and not Muslims, in general. Allah does not force a non-Muslim individual into Islam. This is his/her own choice and decision, whether to submit to the Will of The Creator or not.

Whereas a Muslim is the one ‘who has already submitted his will, to the Will of his Creator, his Lord, Allah’. So how is it that which is commanded by the All Knowledgeable, the All Powerful, is not taken as an obligation/compulsion?

So once an individual is in the bounds of Islam, there are obligations as well as prohibitions, prescribed by Allah and His Messenger ﷺ that a Muslim must follow.

69 All the mentioned narrations confirm that every Salaah has its ‘early time’ and ‘late time’ (of prayers to be offered). But every Salaah should be offered in its early time. (Bulugh al-Maram)

70 It means the Asr prayer should be offered in its early time. After the same size of ones shadow, there is time for four rak’ahs only, which is common between Dhuhr and ‘Asr prayers, after that, the time for ‘Asr begins. (Bulugh al-Maram – notes by Muhammed bin Ismail As-Sanani)

71 Muslim.

72 The hadeeth tells us that Maghrib prayer should be offered in its early time. In the hadeeth of Jibraeel (AlayhisSalaam) only one time is mentioned for the ‘Isha (night) prayer is unto midnight. And the time of the Fajr (dawn) prayer is from the appearance of dawn as long as the sun has not risen (appeared). (Muslim)

2. The Nafl (Voluntary)

The Nafl prayers, like nafl acts can usually be done at any time, except the times that the Prophet ﷺ has forbidden. The Prophet ﷺ would say: ‘If a man cannot offer his (obligatory) prayer perfectly, the defects will be compensated by the nafl (supererogatory) prayer.’ (AbiDawood)

The nafl prayers that the Prophet ﷺ prayed regularly are called the Sunnah prayers. And there are certain other nafl prayers that the Prophet ﷺ performed so regularly, that there is hardly any evidence of him ever missing them. These are called the Sunnah Muakkadah or Rawatib. However Allah does not burden anyone with more than one can bear.⁷³ Hence none of these prayers are compulsory or obligatory. They are voluntary, with very great rewards if one regularly performs them.

The following hadeth is a good example to explain the above:

It is reported that Prophet ﷺ said ‘whoever performs 12 nafl prayers regularly; Allah will make a house for him in Jannah (The Garden, Paradise). These nafl prayers are:
2 rak’ahs before the Fajr (Dawn prayer)
4 rak’ahs before Dhuhr (noon prayer) and 2 after
2 rak’ahs after the Maghrib (Dusk prayer)
2 rak’ahs after the ‘Isha (night prayer)’
(Reported by Bukhari, Muslim and Tirmidhi)

Maghrib prayer on both days (Bukhari), but this was an affair of the early period of Islam. Later on in Al-Madinah the time for the Maghrib prayer was extended. (Muhammed bin Ismail As-Sanani)
⁷³ Surah Al Baqarah, 2:282
Forbidden times for Salaah

There are also certain times at which the Prophet of Allah ﷺ has forbidden the Muslims to perform any nafl or Sunnah Salaah.

1. Abu Hurairah ﷺ narrated that Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘When the iqamah has been said, then there is no other prayer valid (nafl or Sunnah) except the fard prayer for which the iqamah was said.’ (Ahmed, Muslim)

It is a general practice of Muslims, who lack knowledge or are blind followers of their mad’hab, to continue praying the Sunnah or nafl prayer after the iqamah for the fard prayer has been called out, especially in the Fajr prayer. This practice is against the philosophy and discipline of the Jam’ah and a clear violation of the above hadeeth. This hadeeth of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ clearly rejects this practice, and with this evidence and others all the scholars of the Sunnah have prohibited any nafl or Sunnah prayer once the iqamah for the fard has been called out in the mosque. The two Sunnah prayers can be performed after the Fajr’s fard Salaah, as approved by the Prophet ﷺ, or after sunrise.

2. It is forbidden to observe any Salaah at the time of sunrise or sunset since the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘…but when the sun rises (appears) abstain from prayer, for it rises between the horns of Shaytan.’ (Muslim) Some of the scholars have allowed the Fard prayers at such times, since the Prophet ﷺ also said, ‘Whoever has forgotten the prayer (due to sleep etc.) he should pray it whenever he remembers it.’ (Bukhari, Muslim). But usually the forbiddance takes precedence over the obligation, so one should avoid praying till the sun is high.

74 Muslim. But one should not make a habit of doing so, since the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ is to pray two rak’ahs before the fard prayer of Fajr.
3. The Prophet ﷺ also forbade praying ‘when the sun is at its height at midday till it passes the meridian.’ (Muslim)

4. There is no Salaah when food is prepared or served for eating. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: ‘Do not pray when the food is prepared.’ (Muslim). He ﷺ also said: ‘If the dinner is served and the time for prayer comes (in one narration: ‘ …if the iqamah has been given for prayer’), eat dinner before praying Salat-ul-Maghrib, and do not rush to finish your meal. (Bukhari and Muslim)

5. There is no Salaah for the one who needs to answer the call of nature. The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘If anyone of you needs to go to the toilet, and the prayer has begun, he should go to the toilet first.’ (Abi Dawood). He ﷺ also ‘forbade praying when one is suppressing the urge to urinate or defecate.’ (Ibn Majah). So one should leave the Salaah if he falls in such a situation during Salaah.

6. One shouldn’t pray behind someone who is talking since the Prophet ﷺ forbade this. He ﷺ said: ‘Do not pray behind one who is sleeping or one who is talking’ (Abi Dawood, this is a Hasan hadeeth) “The prohibition of praying behind someone talking is established” but there is difference of opinion with regards to praying behind someone who is sleeping since Imam Bukhari (may Allah have Mercy on him) quoted a Saheeh hadeeth from our mother ‘Aisha ﷺ, who said “The Prophet ﷺ used to pray while I was lying across in his bed...”, in Saheeh al-Bukhari.

7. There is no Salaah after ‘Asr. Though the Prophet ﷺ used to pray two rak’ahs after the ‘Asr regularly, this was unique and allowed only for him ﷺ as he did not permit it for others when asked about it. (Bukhari, Al Baab, Kitabu muwaaqeet AsSalaah)

Number of rak’ahs in fard prayers

1. The Fajr Salaah consists of only two rak’ahs, which are fard (obligatory). Two Sunnah rak’ahs should be performed before this, since the Prophet ﷺ never failed to do so even on journey.

2. The Dhuhr Salaah consists of only four rak’ahs that are fard. Four rak’ahs of Salaah before the fard is Sunnah Muakkadah. Two rak’ahs of nafl can also be prayed after the fard, in compliance with the hadeeth mentioned earlier, with regards to nafl prayers, which should be prayed regularly.

3. The ‘Asr Salaah has only four rak’ahs that are fard. Four rak’ahs of nafl could also be prayed before the fard. The Prophet ﷺ said: ’Whoever omits the ‘Asr prayer, all his (good) deeds will be lost.’ In one narration: ‘then it is as if he lost his family and property.’ (Bukhari)

4. The Maghrib Salaah consists of three rak’ahs, which are fard. One should try to perform two rak’ahs nafl before the fard after the adhan (call to prayer). Reported Abdullah bin Mughaffal, the Prophet ﷺ said thrice, ‘Pray before the Maghrib prayer,’ adding, when saying it the third time, ‘this applies to those who wish to do so’. (Bukhari, Muslim) So anybody finding it strange that people pray two rak’ahs before the Maghrib fard Salaah should remember that it is a Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ, and no Muslim can object to or dislike a Sunnah. Praying two rak’ahs after the Maghrib Salaah is Sunnah Rawatib.

77 Bukhari & Muslim.
5. The ‘Isha Salaah consists of four rak’ahs that are fard. Two rak’ahs after that is a Sunnah, and one, three, five, seven or any odd number of Witr before going to bed is also a Sunnah, not wajib (compulsory). Nevertheless he/salla2 hardly ever missed the Witr even while traveling and once said ‘Allah is Witr so He likes Witr.’ (Muslim). In Arabic Witr means one or odd.

Niyah (The Intention)

I have mentioned in the section for Wudu, that the Prophet/salla2 used to say, ‘Every action is based on the intention, and everyone shall have what he intended…’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

Hence it is compulsory for a person to make the intention of observing AsSalaah before he starts AsSalaah. Imam AnNawawi (may Allah have Mercy on him) said, ‘The intention is the purpose, so the person about to pray brings to mind that prayer, and what is relevant to its characteristics, such as which prayer it is, whether it is obligatory etc., and he brings these things together in his intention in his first Takbeer.’

However all the scholars of the Sunnah have a consensus of the fact that the intention of a person is only in his heart and not an act of the tongue. Allama Nasiruddeen Al Albany says that making niyah by the tongue is agreed to be an innovation78, and the Prophet/salla2 said ‘all innovations (in religious matters) are misleading (misguidance), and every misleading thing is in the Hellfire.’ (Muslim and AbiDawood)

Al Khushoo’ (Solemnity & Submissiveness)

The Messenger of Allah/saw described a very important aspect of Khushoo’ when he was asked by Jibraeel /a/saw ‘what is al-I’hsan?’ He/saw

78 The Prophet’s Prayer Described replied: ‘That you worship Allah as if you are seeing Him, and in case you fail to see Him, then observe prayer (knowing) that He is seeing you.’ (Muslim)

The consciousness of the Omnipotence of our Lord, Who is not only vigilant of a man’s deeds and actions, but Who is fully aware of all his thoughts and feelings is the basis of true piety. This aspect has been portrayed throughout the teachings of Islam. And since Salaah is the second pillar of Islam after the Sahahadatayn and the best form of worship, a person is required to incorporate Khushoo’ at the highest level of his ability.

Sheikh Muhammed Salih Al Munajjid (May Allah preserve him), writes in his book called Al-Khushoo’, “Salaah is the greatest pillar of Islam and Khushoo’ in Salaah is required by Islam. Khushoo’ means to be calm, concentrated, humble and present-minded while performing Salaah. To fear Allah is the most important cause of Khushoo’, as one always thinks that Allah is watching him.” ‘The Khushoo’ of true faith can be attained when the heart feels aware and humble before the greatness and Glory of Allah when one stands for Salaah, standing full of fear, awe, hope and recognition of the Blessings of Allah and the rewards one seeks by performing AsSalaah.”

In his valuable book, he also mentions many ways of achieving Khushoo’, some of which I must mention here.

The Concealment of Khushoo’
Since all our worship is for Allah and being extravagant in our Salaah could lead to riya’ (showing off), which is a form of Shirk (associating partners with Allah), of which the Prophet of Allah ﷺ warned us.

Virtues of Khushoo’
The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘The Five prayers that Allah has made obligatory, whoever does Wudu properly for them, prays them on time, does rukoo’ properly and has perfect Khushoo’; it is a promise from Allah that he will be forgiven (in one narration: all his previous sins\textsuperscript{79}, but whoever does not do this, has no such promise. If Allah wishes, He will forgive him, and if He wishes He will punish him.’ (Abi Dawood)

Other ways to help achieve perfect Khusoo’ are, preparing oneself for prayer, removing distractions from the place of prayer, moving at a measured pace in prayer, remembering death while praying, reflecting on the ayaat (verses) being recited and adhkaar (supplications), pausing at the end of each ayah, reciting in slow rhythmic tones, knowing that Allah responds to prayer and not resembling animals\textsuperscript{80} or people indulged in aerobics.

Levels of Khushoo’
The Sheikh further writes, “Those who have Khusoo’ are of varying levels or degrees. Khusoo’ is an action of the heart that may increase and decrease. Some people have Khusoo’ as great as the clouds of the sky, and others may finish their prayer without having understood anything at all.

The first level is of the one who wrongs himself and is negligent. He does not do Wudu properly, or pray at the right time nor does he make sure that he does all of the necessary parts of the Salaah.

The second is the one who observes the outward essentials of AsSalaah, prays on time and does Wudu, but he has lost the battle against his own self and is overwhelmed with waswaas (whisperings of shaytan).

The third is the one who observes the outward essentials of AsSalaah, prays on time and does Wudu, but he is preoccupied with the struggle \textsuperscript{79} Bukhari, Al Bagha edition No. 158 and Nasaa’i.

\textsuperscript{80} From the book Al-Khusoo by Sheikh Muhammed Salih Al Munajjid. By ‘animals’, the Sheikh is referring to the several ahadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ, which prohibit people from praying in postures resembling animals (e.g. sitting like a dog or monkey, pecking like hen, looking around like a fox etc.)
against his enemy (i.e. the shaytan). Lest he steals from his prayer, so he is engaged in Salaah and Jihad at the same time.
The fourth is the one who stands up to pray, fulfills all the requirements of the prayer, and his heart is fully focused and alert lest he omits anything, and his concern is to do the Salaah perfectly. His heart is deeply immersed in his prayer and worship of his Rabb (Lord/Allah).

The fifth is the one who does all of that but he takes his heart and places it before his Rabb, looking at his Rabb with his heart and focusing on Him, filled with love and adoration, as if he is actually seeing Him. That waswaas and those thoughts diminish, and the barriers between him and his Rabb are lifted. The difference between AsSalaah of this person and the Salaah of anyone else is greater than the difference between Heaven and Earth. When this person prays, he is preoccupied with his Rabb and content with Him.

The first type is punishable; the second is accountable; the third is striving so he is not counted as a sinner; the fourth is rewarded and the fifth is drawn close to his Rabb, because he is one of those for whom AsSalaah is a source of joy. Whoever finds their joy in Salaah in this life, will find their joy in being close to Allah in the Hereafter, and will also find his joy in Allah in this world. Whoever finds his joy in Allah will be content with everything, and whoever does not find his joy in Allah, will be destroyed by his feelings of grief and regret for worldly matters. (Al-Waabil al-Sawyib, p.40)”

Waswaas of the Shaytan
With regards to waswaas of the shaytan, the Sheikh says:
The shaytan is man’s staunchest enemy, and one of the aspects of his enmity is the whispering of insinuating thoughts (waswaas) to the worshipper during prayer so as to take away his Khushoo’ and confuse him in his prayer.

Waswaas is a problem that befalls everyone who turns to Allah with dhikr (supplications, remembrance of Allah) and other kinds of worship; it is inevitable, so one has to stand firm and be patient, and persist in the dhikr or Salaah, and not give up. His sticking to it will ward off the shaytan’s plots.

The Prophetta taught us the following methods of combating the wiles of shaytan and getting rid of his waswaas:

Abul ‘Aas ra reported that he said: ‘O Messenger of Allah ta, the shaytan interrupts me when I pray, and I get confused in my recitation.’ The Messenger of Allah ta said, ‘that is a shaytan whose name is Khanzab. If you sense his presence, seek refuge with Allah from him, (one can say:

أَعُوذُ بِاللهِ مِنَ الشَّيْطَانِ الرَّجِيمِ

A’oodhu billahi min asShaytan-irRajeem

I seek refuge with Allah from Shaytan the Evil One, the Rejected)

...and spit (dry spitting) towards your left three times.’ (Abu ‘Aas) said: ‘(next time) I did that and Allah took him away from me.’ (Muslim)

The Prophetta also told us about another of the shaytan’s tricks and how to deal with it. He ta said: ‘When anyone of you gets up to pray, the shaytan comes and confuses him – i.e., he mixes up his prayer and creates doubts in his mind – so that he (the worshipper) does not know how many (rak’ahs) he has prayed. If anyone of you experiences that, he should do two prostrations whilst he is sitting.’ (Bukhari)

Indeed shaytan’s tricks may be very strange and evil, as the following hadeeth indicates.

Ibn ‘Abbas reported that the Prophetta was asked about a man who thought that he had broken his Wudu when he had not done so. The Messenger of Allah ta said: ‘The shaytan may come to any one of you when he is praying and open his buttocks (back passage) and make him think that he has nullified his Wudu when in fact he has not. So if this happens to any one of you, let him not end his prayer unless he hears the sound of it with his ears or smells the odor of it with his nose.’ (At-Tabaraani)"

These are some of the many tricks the shaytan plays, in order to divert a man from his purpose of existence, worshipping Allah alone. But the good slave strives to attain perfect presence of mind in prayer; just as he strives to do everything else properly that he is commanded to do. And there is no help and no strength except with Allah, the Most High, and the Almighty.

Conditions, Pillars and Requirements of AsSalaah

Following are the conditions, pillars and requirements mentioned by Imam Muhammed Ibn Abdul Wahhab Al Tamimi (May Allah have Mercy on him) in his book, from his research of evidences in the Qur’an and the Sunnah.

The Salaah
Allah the Almighty Says:

حافظوا على الصَّلَاَاتَ وَالصَّلَاَةَ الوُسْطَى وَقُومُوا لِلَّهِ قَانُوًا فَإِنَّ خَفْتُمُ فَسُرِّجُوا أَوْ رُكْبَانًا

Guard strictly your (habit of prayers), especially the middle prayer (Asr) and stand before Allah devoutly. If you fear (an enemy) Pray on foot, or riding.
(Surah Al-Baqarah 2:238)

فَخَلَفْ فَمِن بَعْدِهِمْ خَلْفُ أَضَاعُوا الصَّلَاَاتَ وَاتَّبَعُوا الشَّهَوَاتِ فَمَسَّوْفَ يَلْقُونَ غَيْبًا

But after them there followed a posterity who neglected prayers and followed after lusts, then soon will they face Destruction
(Surah Maryam 19:59)

فوُيِلَ لِلْمُصَلِّينَ الْأَنْتَيْنِ هُمْ عَنْ صَلَاتِهِم سَاهُوُنَ

So Woe to those worshippers, who are neglectful of their Salaah.
(Surah AlMaa’oon 107:4-5)

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said:
…the whole earth has been made a place of worship (mosque) and purification for me and my ummah; so wherever prayer becomes due on someone of my ummah, he has his place of worship (mosque) and his purification next to him…

صَلُّوا كَمَا رَأَيْتِمُونِي صَلَّى

Pray as you have seen me praying (Bukhari)

This is one of the ahadeeth used as a basis of the understanding that all the aspects of `ibaadah (worship) generally and the Slaah in particular have to be performed the way that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ taught or practiced. Hence it is incumbent upon the worshipper to perform AsSalaah, no way other than the way of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ. The same was the understanding and the way of the four famous Imams (from whatever hadith they got hold of\(^84\)), and the way of observing Salaah can be found in the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ through the innumerable Saheeh ahadeeth preserved from hundreds of years, in the books of ahadeeth\(^85\) by Allah the All Powerful.

Allah the Sublime says:

إِنَّا نَحْنُ نُرْسِلُ الْذَّكَرُ وَإِنَا لَعَلَّفَٰتُونَ

Verily, it is We who have sent down the Dhikr and surely, we will guard it from corruption (Surah Al Hjr, 14:9)

Scholars have explained that Allah the Most Gracious uses the word Dhikr which means not only the Qur’an but also the Sunnah of Prophet Muhammed ﷺ that is preserved in the various books of ahadeeth, which is very evident.

\(^84\) They taught their students to discard their teachings, with regards to the deen brought to us through beloved Messenger of Allah ﷺ, if it contradicted with any of the ahadeeth of Allah’s Messenger ﷺ.

\(^85\) Saheeh Al Bukhari, Saheeh al Muslim, The four Sunans and other Saheeh ahadeeth.
The Hadeeth of the Sahabi 86 who prayed incorrectly and was told to repeat his Salaah thrice

Another hadeeth of Saheeh Al Bukhari (different versions of which are also mentioned in many other books of ahadeeth), makes it clear that the Salaah should be performed the way the Prophet of Allah ﷺ has ordered.

Many people continue to pray the way they have learned from their forefathers and Imams (may Allah have mercy on them), not realizing that even their Imams strictly followed whatever ahadeeth of the Prophet ﷺ they got hold of. In order to be righteous followers of our Imams one should follow their methodology of strictly following the Saheeh (strong) ahadeeth, with regards to Salaah or any act related to the deen of Islam.

Narrated Abu Hurairah RadiAllahu ‘anhu, the Messenger of Allah ﷺ entered the mosque and a person followed him. The man prayed and then went to the Prophet ﷺ and greeted him; he returned the greeting and said, ‘Go back and pray, for you have not prayed’.

The man went back and prayed the same way as before, and then returned and greeted the Prophet ﷺ, who returned the greeting and said, ‘Go back and pray, for you have not prayed’, this happened three times.

The man said, ‘By Him Who sent you with the Truth, I cannot do any better than this so please teach me’.

He ﷺ said, ‘When you stand for the prayer, say Takbeer and then recite what is easy for you from the Qur’an (from what you know by heart); then bow until you feel at ease in rukoo’; then raise your head and stand up straight (in another narration, till all your backbone comes back to it’s place), then prostrate until you feel at ease in sajdah; then sit with calmness until you feel at ease, and do likewise in all your prayers.’

86 RadiAllahu ‘anhu – May Allah be pleased with him.
Further narrations of this hadeth found in other works of ahadeeth such as Sunan of Abi Dawood, At-Tabaraani, etc. contain more details which will be used throughout the book, as a basis of explaining the Salaah.

The Takbeer

The Prophet ﷺ instructed the Sahabi ﷺ who prayed incorrectly, saying, “Verily the prayer of a person is not complete until he has made an ablution which has included the various parts of the body and has then said

الله أكبر

AllahuAkbar

Allah is the Greatest.”

(At-Tabaraani)

He ﷺ used to say, ‘The key to Salaah is purification, it is entered by the Takbeer (saying AllahuAkbar) and exited by the Tasleem (saying Assalamu’alykum…).’ (AbiDawood, Tirmidhi and Hakim)

He would also say: ‘When the Imam says AllahuAkbar, then say AllahuAkbar’. (Ahmad and Baihaqi); which means that none, from the people behind the Imam, can precede him.

Raising the hands (Rafu-yadain)

He ﷺ would raise his hands sometimes with the Takbeer87, sometimes after the Takbeer88, and sometimes before it.89

‘He would raise the hands with fingers apart (not spaced out nor together)’ 90, and ‘he would put them level with his shoulders’, 87 Bukhari & Nasaa’i.

88 Ibid.
89 Bukhari and AbiDawood

63
although occasionally’\textsuperscript{91}, ‘he would raise them until they were level with his ears’ \textsuperscript{92} (not touching the ears), palms facing the Qiblah\textsuperscript{93}. Touching of the ears while raising the hands is agreed to be a bid’ah, since we have no proof of Prophet \textsuperscript{94}, or the righteous Salaf doing so.

Placing of the arms

The Prophet \textsuperscript{95} once passed by a man who was praying and had placed his left arm over his right, so he pulled them apart and placed the right on the left. (Ahmad and AbiDawood)

He \textsuperscript{95} used to place his right arm over the left in Salaah, and also used to say, ‘We, the company of the Prophets, have been commanded (by Allah) to hasten the breaking of the fast, to delay the meal before the fast, and to place our right arms on our left arms during Salaah’. (Ibn Hibbaan)

In the qiyam (standing) the Prophet \textsuperscript{95} used to place his arms on his chest.\textsuperscript{94}

\textsuperscript{90} AbiDawood, Ibn Khuzaimah.

\textsuperscript{93} Umdat-ul-Ehkaam
\textsuperscript{94} AbiDawood, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ahmad and AbuShaikh. “hands should be placed on the chest” is found in the Hanafi book Aiynul Hidaya. page 350. It’s meaning is also found in Imam Malik’s Muattah and Saheeh Al Bukhari. Also in Sheikh Nasiruddeen Al Albany’s Ahkaam al-janaiz.
Rafu-yadain during Takbeer tahreema
The qiyam (The standing in AsSalaah)
Sheikh Nasiruddeen Al Albany (may Allah have mercy on him) explains that ‘placing the hands on the chest (while in qiyam) is the only practice of the Prophet ﷺ, and all that is contrary to it is either da‘eef (weak) or baseless.’ All the scholars of Sunnah are also in agreement with this. Sheikh Abdul Aziz bin Baaz (may Allah have mercy on him) has also mentioned this in his book.

He ﷺ would place the right arm on the back of his left palm, wrist and forearm, and ‘he commanded his companions to do likewise’ and (sometimes) ‘he would grasp his left arm with his right.’ Hence a worshipper should do this, while in qiyam (standing).

Looking at the place of prostration in humility

The Prophet ﷺ used to incline his head during Salaah, in humility and fix his sight towards the ground (at the place of prostration), till he came out of it (the Salaah).

The Prophet ﷺ forbade looking up toward the sky, while in Salaah saying: ‘People must refrain from looking up toward the sky in Salaah, or their sight will not return to them, (and in one narration)...or their sight will be plucked away’. (Bukhari and AbiDawood)

He also said: ‘Allah does not cease to turn to a slave in his Salaah as long as he is not looking around; when he turns his face away, Allah too turns away from him. (AbiDawood)

He would also dislike wearing clothes with any marks or designs, which would be disturbing to him or others, during prayer. (Bukhari, Muslim and Malik)

He also forbade pecking like a hen (in sujood), squatting like a dog, and looking around like a fox in the Salaah. (Ahmad and Abu Ya’laa)

Supplications before Al-Fatihah

The Prophet would commence his recitation with many kinds of du’as (supplications) in which he would praise Allah the Exalted and glorify and extol Him. And he also ordered the Muslims to do likewise. (Bukhari, Muslim, Ibn Abi Shaibah)

One can say any one of the following supplications after the first Takbeer (Tahreema):

1. Sub’hanaka-Allahumma wa bi’Hamdika wa tabaarak-asmuka wa laailaha-ghairuk
   You are Glorified O Allah, and praised; your Name is Blessed; your majesty is exalted, and none has the right to be worshipped but You. (Muslim)

2. اللَّهُ أَكْبَرُ كَبِيرًا وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ كَبِيرًا وَسُبْحَانَ اللَّهِ بَكرَةً وَأصْبِيًّا

68
AllahuAkbar kabeera wal’Hamdulillahi katheera wa Sub’haanAllahi bukratan wa Aseela

Allah is the Greatest, very Great, praise be to Allah, again and again. Glorified is Allah morning and evening.

3. One of the companions commenced with the dhikr below, upon which the Messenger of Allah سل الله عليه وسلم said: ‘Wonderful for it (the supplication) is that the doors of heavens were opened for it.’ (Muslim and AbiDawood)

 آلْحَمْدُ للهِ حَمْدًا كَثِيرًا طَيِّبًا مُبَارَكًا فِيمَعَاهُ

Alhamdulillahi Hamdan katheeran Tayyiban, Mubarakan feeh

Praise be to Allah many pure, blessed praises.

Another Sahabi commenced with this to which the Messenger سل الله عليه وسلم said: ‘I saw twelve angels competing as to which of them would take it up ’. (Muslim, Abu ‘Awaanah)

4. He would say Takbeer (AllahuAkbar), Tahmeed (Alhamdulillah), Tasbeeh (SubhanAllah), Tahleel (Laailaha-illAllah), and Istighfar (Astaghfirullah) ten times each and then say ten times

 اللّٰهُمَّ اغْفِرْ لِي وَأَهْدِني وَأَرْزُقْنِي (وَعَافِنِي)

Allahumma-ghfirlee wahdinee warzuqnee (wa’aafinee)

O Allah! Forgive me and guide me and give me sustenance and (overlook my sins).

And ten times:

 اللّٰهُمَّ إِنِّي أُعُوْدُ بِدُبْكَ مِنَ الصَّيِّبَةِ يَوْمُ الْحَسَابَ

Allahumma innee a’oodhubika min-addeeqi yawm al’Hisaab

O Allah! I seek refuge with You from the distress of the Day of Account.

(Ahmad, Ibn Abi Shaibah, AbiDawood and Tabaraani).
Recitation and its Etiquette

The Messenger of Allah would start his recitation by seeking refuge with Allah.

A’oodhu billahi min asShaytan-irRajeem min hamzihi wa nafkhihi wa nafthihi

I seek refuge with Allah from Shaytan the Evil One, the Rejected, from his madness his arrogance and his poetry (or song).

Sometimes he would say

A’oodhu billahi-Ssamee’l ‘Aleem min asShaytan-irRajeem min hamzihi wa nafkhihi wa naithihi

I seek refuge with Allah, the All Hearing, the All Knowing, from Shaytan the Evil One, the Rejected, from his madness his arrogance and his poetry.

Then he would recite the Tasmiyah or Basmalah (i.e. Bismillahi-Rra’hmaani-Rra’heem) quietly\(^\text{102}\) and the rest of Surah Al-Fatihah (loudly or quietly, according to the particular prayer), dividing his recitation by reciting one verse at a time, in a rhythmic tone, pausing after each verse.

Bismillahi-Ra’haani-Ra’heem

It is forbidden to talk (to others) in AsSalaah, and if someone greets you with a salutation (knowingly or unknowingly), it is permissible to raise your right hand to return the salutation. (Bukhari)

The Prophet ﷺ would recite loudly in the Maghrib, ‘Isha and Fajr prayers, and quietly in the Dhuhr and ‘Asr prayers. (Bukhari, Muslim and AbiDawood)

Obligation of reciting Surah Al-Fatihah in all the Prayers

The obligation of reciting Surah Al-Fatihah in loud and quiet prayers is evident from the ahadeeth given below.104

The Prophet ﷺ would consistently emphasise the importance of this Surah saying: ‘There is no prayer for the one who did not recite (in it) the opening chapter (Al-Fatihah).’105

‘That prayer is not sufficient in which a man does not recite the opening of The Book (Surah Al-Fatihah).’106

‘He who performs the Salaah in which he does not recite Surah Al-Fatihah, then it (the Salaah) is deficient, is deficient, is deficient and incomplete.’107

He ﷺ would also say: ‘Allah did not reveal in the Torah or the Injeel, anything like the mother of The Qur’an (Surah Al-Fatihah). It is the seven oft-repeated verses, (and the Grand Recitation which have been bestowed upon me). (Nasa’i and Hakim)

104 But if a new Muslim, has not yet memorized Al-Fatihah and other Surahs or supplications, he can say SubhanAllah, Al’hamdulillah or AllahuAkbar, at such times, till he has memorized the required Surahs and supplications.
105 Bukhari, Muslim, Abu ‘Awaanah & Baihaqi. Irwaa’Al Ghaleel, by Sheikh Al Albany
106 Daraqutni & ibn Hibbaan. Irwaa’Al Ghaleel.
107 Muslim & Abu ‘Awaanah.
The Prophet ﷺ was praying Fajr and the recitation became difficult for him; when he finished he said: ‘Perhaps you recite behind your Imam,’ we said ‘Yes, quickly, O Messenger of Allah.’ He said: ‘Do not do so; except for (each one of you reciting) the opening chapter of the Book (Surah Al-Fatihah), for the prayer is not valid of the one who does not recite it.’

Imam Al Bukhari (may Allah have Mercy on him) in his Risala, uses the above hadeeth and similar narrations as evidence to show that a rak‘ah in which a person was not able to recite Al-Fatihah should be repeated. But some scholars are of the opinion that if a person joins in the rukoo’, then that rak‘ah is valid, even if he was not able to neither catch the qiyaam nor complete reciting Al-Fatihah. Since the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘He who has an Imam, then the recitation of the Imam is recitation for him.’, and ‘Whoever caught the bowing has caught the rak‘ah’. A person may make an ijtihaad (sincere decision, which he feels is closer to the truth for the sake of pleasing Allah), from the above evidences and chose to do any one of the above.

However he ﷺ dissuaded the companions from confusing him with their audible recitation, when once a companion recited Surah Al A‘la; in another hadeeth: ‘they used to recite behind the Prophet ﷺ (loudly), so he said: ‘You have mixed my (recitation of the) Qur’an.’ (Bukhari in Risala, Ahmed & Siraj).

108 Imam Bukhari in his Risala, AbiDawood & Ahmed.
109 Ibn Shaibah, Daraqutni, Ibn Majah, Tahaawi and Ahmed
111 Sheikh Zafar-ul-Hasan Al Madani and Abdul Majeed Ali Hassan hold that it is better for a person to recite Surah Al-Fatihah since it puts a person in a much safer position, of the Salaah being accepted. Since the ones who say that it is not compulsory to recite Al-Fatihah do not prohibit its recitation either.
112 Muslim, Abu ‘Awanah and Siraj.
Later he forbade them to recite in the loud prayers, so they recited to themselves quietly when the Imam was not reciting loudly.\footnote{Malik, Humaidi & Imam Bukhari in his Risala.}

He urged the sahaba to recite in quiet prayers. Jabir said: ‘We used to recite behind the Imam in Dhuhr and ‘Asr, Surah Al-Fatihah and another Surah in the first two rak’ahs and Surah Al-Fatihah only, in the last two.’ (Ibn Majah)

Therefore, we can conclude from the above evidences that reciting Surah Al-Fatihah is compulsory in any Salaah, whether behind an Imam or alone, since Salaah without it is invalid. But when in the Mosque, it should be recited in such a way that does not disturb others in their acts of worship.

It is also permissible to recite only Surah Al-Fatihah in the Salaah, without reciting another Surah after Al-Fatihah.\footnote{Ibn Khuzaimah (in his Saheeh 1634) and Baihaqi, also in Bukhari, Muslim, Ahmed. Abi Dawood}

Obligation for the Imam and the congregation, to say Aameen loudly

While leading the Jam’ah, when the Prophet finished reciting Al-Fatihah, he would say:

\text{أَمِينّ}
\]

\text{Aameen}

\text{O Allah! Accept our prayer}
\]

He would do so loudly and prolonging it. (Bukhari in Juz’ al-Qiraa’ah & Abudawood)

Likewise he used to order the congregation to say Aameen loudly, saying:

\text{أَمِينّ}
\]

\text{Aameen}

\text{O Allah! Accept our prayer}
\]
When the Imam says,

ghayril maghdoobi ‘alayhim waladdaaaaaal lee

Not (the way) of those who earned Your anger, nor of those who went astray

then say “Aameen”, for the angels say Aameen, and the Imam says Aameen, (in another narration, when the Imam says “Aameen”, say “Aameen”\(^\text{115}\)) so he whose Aameen coincides with the Aameen of the angels, his past sins are forgiven.‘(Bukhari, Muslim, Nasa’i & Darimi)

In another hadeeth: ‘…then say Aameen; Allah will answer you.’ (Muslim & Abu ‘Awaanah)

He also used to say: ‘The Jews do not envy you over anything as much as they envy you over (saying) the salutation (assalamu-alaykum) and Aameen (loudly behind the Imam).’ (Bukhari in Al-adab al-Mufrad, Ibn Majah, Ibn Khuzaimah, Ahmed and Siraj)

Recitation after Al-Fatihah

Next, he would recite any other Surah after Al-Fatihah, making it long sometimes and sometimes making it short because of travel, cough, illness or the crying of infants in the mosque. He would

\(^{115}\) As a general rule throughout AsSalaah behind an Imam no one should precede the Imam in any action of the Salaah. And since it is an order from the Prophet to say Aameen only after the Imam says Aameen, one behind the Imam should do so, or his prayer could be nullified. (Check “Etiquettes of the worshippers behind the Imam in the Jam’ah”, in Part 3 of this book)

A Hanafi Scholar says: "saying Aameen aloud is proven to be authentic through various chains of narrators in Ibne Majaah, Nasai ,Abu Dawud, Jam Tirmidhi and Sahih ibn Hibban -some of our Hanafi scholars eg. Ibn Haman in ‘Fathul Qadeer’ and his disciple Amir Haj in ‘Sharya manyatul mussalli’ have pointed the authenticity of saying Aameen aloud. Thus after lot of research and understanding we have realised that the narration of saying aameen quietly is da’eeff (weak)” Abdul Hai Hanafi (Lucknowi) Sharhe Wiqaya Vol.1 pg 197.

One of the Ansars (the helpers in Al-Madinah) while leading the prayers used to recite Surah Al-Ikhlaas before reciting any other Surah after Al-Fatihah, upon which some people complained to the Prophet \textsuperscript{3} about this, when he did not stop doing so, even after numerous requests. The Prophet \textsuperscript{3} asked that Ansari: ‘O so-and-so, what stops you from doing what our people ask you to do? What makes you recite this Surah (Al-Ikhlaas) in every rak‘ah? He said: ‘I love this Surah.’ So the Prophet \textsuperscript{3} said: ‘Your love for it will enter you into Jannah (Paradise).’ (Bukhari & Tirmidhi)

Surah Al-Ikhlaas also known as Surah Tawheed:

\textsuperscript{116} The Prophet’s Prayer Described \textsuperscript{3}. According to Imam Mohammed (student of Abu Hanifa) the muqtadi should recite Surah Fatihah in sirri (Dhuhr and ‘Asr). This is also preffered in the most trustworthy books of Hanafi fiqh which are, Hidaya and Mujtaba Sharhe Kuduri. Even many of our Hanafi scholars have accepted this view. In the same way even in Jahri (Fajr, Magrib, Isha) Salaah when the Imam takes a pause the muqtadi’s recitation cannot be denied” - Allama Abdul Hai Hanafi in Sharhe Waqaya Umdaturriaya page 41. The Rukoo’ (Bowing)

The Prophetﷺ would pause for a moment after his recitation, raise his hands (rafu-yadain)¹²⁰, say the Takbeer and go into rukoo’. He ordered a sahabi to do so and to keep his joints at ease and relaxed¹²¹ while in rukoo’.

He also ordered saying: ‘When you make rukoo’, place your palms on your knees, then space your fingers out (as if grasping them), then remain (like that) until every limb takes its (proper) place.”¹²² In another narration ‘…spread your back (flat) and hold firm in your rukoo’.”¹²³

In rukoo’, the Prophetﷺ would spread his back and make it level, such that if water was poured on it, it would stay there (not run off)¹²⁴, he would neither let his head droop nor raise it (higher than his back).¹²⁵

It is reported that the Prophetﷺ said: ‘The prayer of a man does not count unless he straightens his back in rukoo’ and sujood.’ (AbiDawood and Abu‘Awanah) In another hadeeth: ‘O assembly of the Muslims! Verily, the prayer is not valid of the one who does not settle his spine in rukoo’ and sujood.’ (Ibn Majah and Ahmed).

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ once said: ‘The worst thief amongst men is the one who steals from his prayer. They said: ‘O messenger of Allah, how does he steal from his prayer?’ He said, ‘he does not complete his rukoo and sujood.’ (Tabaraani and Hakim)

From the above it is evident that it is obligatory for a Muslim to be in ease during rukoo’ and sujood, and not to be hasty so as to resemble the pecking of a cockerel, which the Prophet of Allah ﷺ forbade.126

Supplications or Adhkaar in the rukoo’

At a time, the Prophet ﷺ would say different types of supplications:

1.  Sandsan rabbi al’adheem

   How perfect is my Lord, the Supreme. Three times.

   (Ahmed and Ibn Majah).

2. Sometimes he would say the above adding

    Wa bi ’hamdih

   ...and Praised be He.

   (AbiDawood, Ahmed and Tabaraani)

3.  Sub’hank Allahumma wa bi ‘hamdika, Allahumma-ghfirlee

   How Perfect You are O Allah, and Praises are for You. O Allah forgive me.

   (Bukhari and Muslim)

The Prophet ﷺ forbade the reciting of the Qur’an in the rukoo’ and sujood. (Muslim, Abu‘Awanah and Ibid)

126 Ahmed, Ibn Abi Shaibah.
The rukoo’ (The bowing)
Straightening up from the rukoo’

The Prophet ﷺ would get out of the rukoo’ by raising his head and standing straight until every vertebra returned to its place. He would raise his hands while straightening up (rafu-yadain). He once said that a person’s prayer is not complete until he is standing straight (after rukoo’). While straightening up from the rukoo’ he would say:

سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لَمَّا حَمَدَهُ

Sami’ Allahu liman ‘hamida

Allah listens to one who praises Him

(Bukhari and Muslim)

While standing he would say

رَبَّنَا وَلَكَ الْحَمَدُ

Rabbana wa lakal ‘Hamd

Our Lord and to You be all Praise

(Bukhari and Ahmed)

Or

رَبَّنَا لَكَ الْحَمَدُ

Rabbana lakal ‘Hamd

Our Lord to You be all Praise

(Ibid)

Sometimes beginning the above with اَلْلَهَمْ...

Allahumma...

O Allah...

He ordered one companion to be at ease in the (qiyam) standing: ‘...when you rise, make your spine upright and raise your head, until the bones return to the joints.’ (Ahmed, Shaaf’i and Hakim)

He also said: ‘Allah, Mighty and Sublime, does not look at the prayer of the slave who does not make his backbone upright in between his bowings and prostrations’. (Ahmed and Tabaraani)

He would make his standing as long as the rukoo’ and sometimes so long that one might think that he has forgotten.\(^{130}\) (Bukhari, Muslim and Ahmed)

The Sujood (Prostrations)

Next, the Prophet would say AllahuAkbar (Allah is the Greatest) and go down in Sajdah (prostration).\(^{131}\) He would say: ‘A man’s prayer is not complete unless...he says; AllahuAkbar and prostrates such that his joints are at rest.’ (AbiDawood and Hakim).

Sometimes he would raise his hands (rafu-yadain) before doing the sajdah.\(^{132}\)

The ways of going down in Sajdah

He used to go down in sajdah by ‘placing his hands on the ground before (placing) his knees’.\(^{133}\) And say: ‘When one of you performs sajdah,\

\(^{130}\) It is explained by Sheikh Abdul ‘Aziz bin Baaz in his book Thalaathat rasaaal fi-Salaah, that one might think that he has forgotten...wether he is in the initial qyiam (after Takbeer tahreema), or he is in the qiyam after the rukoo’. Since in the initial qiyam he used to fold his arms on the chest, the same should be done in the qiyam after *rukoo’. Moreover we find only one way of the Prophet standing in the qiyam (i.e. with arms folded on the chest) from evidences of ahadeeth, contrary to this no other narration of the Prophet’s exists.

  \item \textsuperscript{133} Ibn Khuzaimah (1/76/1), Daraqutni and Hakim.
  \item \textsuperscript{134} This hadeeth indicates that one should put his hands on the ground before his knees when one goes to prostrate oneself. This is held by Al-Awza’i, Malik, Ibn ‘Hazm, and Ahmed. According to a version, Al ‘Hazimi said: ‘I found people (from the Salaf) placing their hands on the ground, before placing their knees’. This is also held by the muhadditheen (traditionists): Ibn Sayyid al-Naas thinks that the traditions, which indicate the placing of the hands before the knees, are more established and preferable. But Al Khattabi is of the opinion that the hadeeth reported by Wail ibn al-Hujr is better established because it is supported by several other sound traditions. Ibn Khuzaimah observes that the hadeeth reported by Abu Hurairah has been abrogated, on the authority of Saad ibn AbiWaqqas, which says: ‘We used to place our hands (on the ground) before our knees, but later on we were commanded to place our knees before our hands. (Awn al-Ma’bood 1/311/12).\textsuperscript{135}
  \item \textsuperscript{135} Sheikh Al Albany (may Allah have Mercy on him) held that the hadeeth of going down with hands first is the only Saheeh with regards to going down in Sajdah, and moreover it’s a command of the prophet to do so. He also explains that the knees of a camel are in its forelegs, and when a camel kneels it goes down on its knees first. Sheikh ‘Abdul ‘Aziz bin Baaz (may Allah have Mercy on him), said that there is no harm if a person does either of the two, (i.e. go down knees first or hands first). Allah Knows best.

‘He would not rest his forearms on the ground’\(^{136}\), ‘but would raise them above the ground and keep them away from his sides such that the whiteness of his armpits could be seen from behind’\(^{137}\), and also ‘if a small lamb (kid) wanted to pass under his arms, it would be able to do so’\(^{138}\).

He would also say: ‘There is no prayer for the one whose nose does not feel as much of the ground as the forehead.’ [Tabaraani (3/140/1) and Daraqutni]

He used to put his knees and toes down firmly\(^ {139}\), point with the front of the toes towards the Qiblah\(^ {140}\), put the heels together\(^ {141}\), keep his feet upright\(^ {142}\) and ordered to do likewise\(^ {143}\).

In one narration he \(^{salla2}\) said: ‘We have been ordered to prostrate on seven bones: on the forehead, and he indicated by moving his hand around his nose, the palms, the knees and the toes and not to tuck up the garment and the hair (the hair instruction is for men). (Bukhari and Muslim)

He would also order likewise and say; ‘...Be level in Sujood, and none of you should spread his forearms like a dog spreads them (Bukhari, Muslim and AbiDawood), and ‘None of you should rest (his) arms on the grounds the way a dog rests them.’ (Ahmed and Tirmidhi)

As mentioned earlier, he \(^{salla2}\) also ordered to be at ease when in sujood, saying: ‘The prayer of a man does not count unless he straightens his back in rukoo’ and sujood.’ (AbiDawood and Abu’Awanah) In another hadeth: ‘O assembly of the Muslims! Verily, the prayer is not valid of the one who does not settle his spine in rukoo’ and sujood.’ (Ibn Majah and Ahmed).

The Sajdah (Prostration)
Supplications or Adhkaar in the Sujood

While in sujood, the Prophet ﷺ would say many supplications, at different times. A few of them are mentioned below:

سُبْحَانَ رَبّي الَّاَلْلَّهِ
Sub’hana rabbi al a’la
How Perfect is my Lord, The Most High, three times
(Ahmed, AbiDawood, Ibn Majah)

سُبْحَانَ رَبّي الَّالَّهِ وَبِحَمْدِهِ
Sub’hana rabbee al a’la wa bi ‘hamdih
How Perfect is my Lord, The Most High, and Praised be He, three times
(AbiDawood, Tabaraani and Baihaqi)

سُبْحَانَكَ الَّلَّهُمَّ رَبّي وَبِحَمْدِكَ الَّلَّهُمَّ اَغْفِرْ لِيَ
Sub’hanak-Allahumma Rabbana wa bi ‘hamdika, Allahumma-ghfirlee
How Perfect You are O Allah, Our Lord and Praises are for You. O Allah forgive me.
(Bukhari and Muslim)

As mentioned earlier, the Prophet ﷺ forbade reciting the Qur’an in the sujood. But he said: ‘The slave is closest to his Lord when he is in prostration, so increase supplication (in it).’

(Muslim, Abu ‘Awanah and Baihaqi)

144 This prostration is from the prostrations within the Salaah (or those prostrations which are evident from the Prophet ﷺ), unlike the prostrations which people make after their Tasleem and Salaah is completed, and stay in prostration for long intervals making invocations and supplications; this is a bid’ah and should not been done. One can make the invocations and supplications within the sujood in the Salaah or implement the methods
Rising from the first and second Sajdahs, and the resting in between

He would raise his head from sajdah while saying Takbeer (AllahuAkbar) and sometimes raise both his hands (rafu-yadain) simultaneously.146

He also ordered one sahabi, saying: ‘The prayer of any person is not complete until...he prostrates until his limbs are at rest, and then says, ‘AllahuAkbar’ and raises his head until he is sitting straight.’ (AbiDawood, and Hakim)

The muftarishan

The Prophet ordered iftiraash between the two sajdahs saying: When you prostrate, prostrate firmly, then when you rise, sit on your left thigh (Bukhari and Baihaqi)

He would also relax himself and sit likewise, keeping his right foot upright and point its toes towards the Qiblah. This is the mufatrishan or iftiraash.

The iq’aa’

During this pause (between two sajdahs) the Prophet also practiced iq’aa’ (resting on both his heels and all his toes), between the two

Supplications between the two Sajdahs

During this pause (jalsaa al-istiraaha) he ﷺ would sometimes say:

\text{ذَٰلِكَ الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الْقَهَّارِ، وَالْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الْقَهَّارِ،}
\]

O my Lord! Have Mercy on me, strengthen me, raise my rank, guide me, pardon me, sustain me. (AbiDawood, Tirmidhi, Ibn Majah & Hakim)

And sometimes he ﷺ would say:

\text{رَبِّ اغْفِرِّي اغْفِرِّي}

Oh my Lord! Forgive me, forgive me. (Ibn Majah)

The Prophet ﷺ would prostrate the second time, saying the Takbeer and sometimes doing the rafu-yadain before prostrating second time. After he was at ease in the sajdah, he ﷺ would then raise his head saying the Takbeer simultaneously, and sit straight and rest (like he did between the two sajdahs, upright until every bone returned to its position), and ordered to do likewise. He would also order, saying: ‘[then do that in all your bowings and prostrations,] for if you do that, your prayer will be complete, and if you fall short in any of this, you will be deficient in your prayer.’ (Ahmed and Tirmidhi)

The Second *rak‘ah

The Prophet would stand up straight for the second rak‘ah, with hands folded on the chest, just like in the first rak‘ah, and recite Surah al Fatiha, without pausing\textsuperscript{159} (for the opening supplications, which are said before Al-Fatiha\textsuperscript{160}).

He would perform the second rak‘ah exactly as he performed the first, except that he would make it shorter than the first.\textsuperscript{161}

As explained before it is obligatory to recite Surah Al-Fatiha in every rak‘ah, whether or not behind an Imam. The Prophet had also ordered a sahabi to do so saying ‘...then do that (recite Surah Al-Fatiha) throughout your prayer\textsuperscript{162} (...in every rak‘ah\textsuperscript{163}).

toes facing Qiblah) for tashahhud, as the Prophet ﷺ would sometimes sit between the two sajdahs. The same should also be done in the first tashahhud of a three or four rak’ahs prayer.

The tashahhud begins as soon as the worshipper sits muftarishan after two rak’ahs (or mutawarrikan in case of the third or fourth rak’ah), till he gets up for the third rak’ah or says Tasleem.

The Prophet ﷺ forbade sitting in prayer, resting with the left hand. Regarding this he ﷺ said: ‘Verily this is the prayer of the Jews\(^{167}\), and ‘Do not sit like this, for indeed this is the way of sitting of those who are punished\(^{168}\).’ This way of resting with the left hand and sitting is prohibited in the prayer as evident from these ahadeeth. But if a person sits this way outside Salaah (and in difficulty), inshaAllah there is no harm. Allah knows best.

Then he ﷺ ‘...would clench all the fingers of his right hand, point with the (fore) finger adjacent to the thumb towards the Qiblah, and fix his sight on it (the raised finger)’\(^{169}\). ‘...When he pointed with his finger, he would keep his thumb on his middle finger’\(^{170}\), and sometimes ‘he would make a circle with these two’\(^{171}\).

The Sitting in the first Tashahhud
‘When he raised the finger, he would move it, supplicating with it.’\textsuperscript{172} And he used to say: ‘It is surely more powerful against the devil, than iron, meaning the forefinger.’\textsuperscript{173} This should be done throughout the sitting of \textit{tashahhud}.

This was the practice of the Prophet in both the \textit{tashahhuds}\textsuperscript{174} and in all his prayers, and the \textit{Sahaba} too used to remind each other of the pointing of the finger (and moving) while supplicating (in \textit{tashahhud})\textsuperscript{175}.

The Prophet used to raise his finger and move it while supplicating, throughout the sitting of \textit{tashahhud}, i.e. from the time he would sit and start supplicating till he got up or said the \textit{Tasleem}. There is no authentic \textit{hadeeth} of him doing otherwise. Raising the finger when saying ‘\textit{‘\textit{Al-lahi la ilaha illa Allah...}}’ is an innovation and not proven authentically from the \textit{Sunnah}, and should not be done. Since the Prophet said: ‘Pray as you have seen me praying.’ (Bukhari)

\textbf{Supplications in the \textit{Tashahhuds}}

In the same state of sitting as described above, a person is required to say all his supplications of the \textit{tashahhud}. The Messenger of Allah used to order the \textit{sahabi}, saying: ‘When you sit after every two rak’ahs, then say:

All compliments, prayer and pure words are due to Allah. Peace be on you, O Prophet, and also the Mercy of Allah and His Blessings. Peace be on us and on the righteous slaves of Allah. (When one says this, it includes every righteous slave in the heaven and earth). I bear witness that none has the right to be worshipped but Allah, and I bear witness that Muhammad is His slave and Messenger.

Sheikh Al-Albani writes in his book\textsuperscript{176} that the above supplication has been reported by Ibn Mas’ood who said, “The Messenger of Allah taught me the \textit{tashahhud}, (with) my palms between his palms, the way he taught me a \textit{Surah} of the Qur’an. This was while he was amongst us, but after he was taken, we would say:

However most of the scholars consider it better to say what the Prophet ḥas taught since the same dua’ was taught to the sahaba who were not present in front of him and this is the only dua we find in the books of hadith of the Prophet Muhammed ﷺ.

Also the sending of Salam to the Prophet ﷺ,

السلام عليكم أيها النبي

Peace be upon you, O prophet is like the one said when we visit his grave, in meaning. And Allah knows best.

However one cannot add:

وَ مَغْفِرَتُهُ...

wa maghfiratuhu
and may He forgive you

After

وَ رَحْمَةُ الله وَ بَرَکَانَهُ

Wa rah’matullahi wa barakaatuhu
May Allah’s Peace and blessings be upon you

And

وَ حَدِيثَ نَ لَا شَرِيكَ لَهُ

Wa’hdahu laa shareekalahu
And He is the Unique (the One True God) with no partners

After

أَشْهَدَ أَنْ لَا إِلَٰهَ إِلَّا اللَّهُ

Ash-hadu anlaailaha ill-Allah
I bear witness that there is no god but Allah…

… this would be considered a bid’ah (innovation), since the Prophet ﷺ did not teach it, nor did any of the righteous Salaf do it.177

Sending Prayers on the Prophet ﷺ, As-Salaah’alan-Nabiyy

There are several ways that the Prophet ﷺ taught and established for his ummah the sending of prayers to him ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ himself178, used to send prayers in the first and the second tashahhuds179 as shown below:

اللَّهُمَّ صَلِّ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَهْلِ بِيْتِهِ وَعَلَى أُزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ، كَمَا صَلَّيْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيِّدٌ، وَبَارَكَ عَلَى مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى آلِ بِيْتِهِ، وَعَلَى أُزْوَاجِهِ وَذُرِّيَّتِهِ، كَمَا بَارَكْتَ عَلَى آلِ إِبْرَاهِيمَ، إِنَّكَ حَمِيدٌ مَّجِيِّدٌ

Allahumma Salli ‘ala Muhammadin, wa ‘ala ahli baytihi, wa ‘ala azwaajihw wa dhurrriyyatih, kamaa sallayta ‘ala aali Ibraheema, Innaka ‘Hameedu-Mmajeed. Wa barik ‘ala Muhammadin wa ‘ala aali baytihi, wa ‘ala azwaajihw wa dhurrriyyatih, kamaa baarakta ‘ala aali Ibraheema Innaka ‘Hameedu-Mmajeed

O Allah! Send Peace on Muhammed, and on his household, and on his wives and progeny, as you sent Peace on the family of Ibraheem; you are indeed worthy of Praise, Full of Glory. And send blessings on Muhammed, and his household and his wives and progeny, as you sent blessings on the family of Ibraheem; You are indeed Worthy of Praise, Full of Glory. (Ahmed and Tahaawi)

177 Tabaraani (3/56/1), and in Mujam al-Awsat, no, 248. It is well explained in ‘The Prophet’s Prayer Described’, by Sheikh Nasiruddin Al Albany (May Allah’s have Mercy on him)
178 Ahmed & Tahaawi
179 Abu ‘Awaanah and Nasaa’i.
The several other ways of sending prayers to the Prophet ﷺ can be found in many books of ahadeeth.

It is also evident from the following narration, that a worshipper may choose any du’aa or supplication for himself, after sending the blessings and prayers to the Prophet ﷺ. The Prophet ﷺ said, ‘…when you sit after every two rak’ahs, then say: Attahiyatu lillahi... (till the end)…then he should select of the supplications what is most pleasing to him.’ (Nasa’i, Ahmed and Tabraani)

He may say the supplication of seeking refuge from the four things, which is obligatory to say in the final tashahhud, which was taught by the Messenger of Allah (May Peace and Blessings of Allah be upon him).

Standing up for the third and the fourth rak’ahs

Next the worshipper should (if need be) stand up for the third rak’ah, by saying Takbeer, like the Prophet ﷺ did and ordered us to do. One can also raise his hands (rafu-yadain) before getting up, like the Prophet ﷺ used to do sometimes.

He should recite Al-Fatihah and do the same as in the first rak’ah. Reciting another Surah after Al-Fatihah is not necessary. But it is evident from the Sunnah, which the Prophet ﷺ used to often recite another Surah after Al-Fatihah in the third and fourth rak’ahs.

180 Check ‘The final Tashahhud and obligation to seek refuge from four things’ on the following page.
181 Bukhari and Abi Dawood.
182 Bukhari, Muslim and Ahmed.
After the third rak‘ah the worshipper should emulate the Prophet ﷺ who “would sit up straight on his left foot (muftarishan), at ease, until every bone returned to its proper place, then stand up, supporting himself on the ground; and he would clench his fists (as if kneading dough), supporting himself with them when standing up”, like he did after the first rak‘ah.

In the fourth rak‘ah one should recite Al-Fatihah as ordered by the Prophet ﷺ.¹⁸³ He may also recite any other Surah if he wishes to, and continue till the sajdahs, like he did in the second rak‘ah.

The final Tashahhūd and obligation to seek refuge from four things

After completing the sujood of the (third or) fourth rak‘ah, one should sit for the final tashahhūd, like the Prophet ﷺ did and instructed as explained below.¹⁸⁴

One should repeat, what he did in the first tashahhūd, except that he should sit mutawarrikan. In the mutawarrikan the Prophet ﷺ would sit on his left thigh and buttock and also ‘keep his left foot under his (right) thigh and shin’¹⁸⁵, ‘his right foot upright’¹⁸⁶ or occasionally ‘he would lay it on the ground’¹⁸⁷, ‘his left palm would cover his (left) knee, leaning heavily on it’¹⁸⁸ (See photo). So the worshipper should try to do the same, since the Prophet ﷺ has commanded, ‘Pray as you have seen me praying.’ (Bukhari).

After saying ‘Atta’hiyaatu lillahi...(till the end’), one should send As-Salaah’alan-Nabiyy [prayers or peace to the Prophet], like he did in the first tashahhud, and then seek protection from the four things, which the Prophet has commanded. He would say: ‘...when one of you has finished the (last) tashahhud, he should seek refuge with Allah from four things (saying):

الَّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَعُوذُ بِكَ مِنْ عَذَابِ جَهَنَّمَ، وَ مِنْ عَذَابِ الْقَبْرِ، وَ مِنْ فَتَنَّتِهِ الْمَهْجُورَةِ
وَالْمَمَاتَ، وَ مِنْ شَرِّ [فَتَنَّةَ] الْمَسِيحِ الْدَّجَالِ

Allahumma innee a’udhubika min ‘adhaabi Jahannam, wa min ‘adhaabil-Qabr, wa min fitnatil-ma’hya wal-mamaat, wa min sharri

O Allah! I truly seek refuge with You, from the punishment of Hellfire, and (from the punishment of) the grave, and from the trials of living and dying, and from the evil [trials] of the False Maseeh...

... ‘Then he should supplicate for himself, with what occurs to him.’
(Muslim, Abu ‘Awaanah and Nasa’i)

There are various types of supplications or du’aas that the Prophet used to say, before the Tasleem. These can be found in many books of ahadeeth, like Saheeh Bukhari, Saheeh Muslim, Sunan Abi Dawood, Sunan Nasa’i, Musnad of Ahmed, Sunan Ibn Majah, Sunan Tirmidhi etc.

The Tasleem (Salutation of Peace)

After all the above, one should end the Salaah, by the Tasleem, which is obligatory. The Prophet used to say: ‘The key to Salaah is purification, it is entered by the Takbeer (saying AllahuAkbar) and exited by the Tasleem (saying Assalamu’alaykum...).’ (AbiDawood, Tirmidhi and Hakim)

The Prophet used to salute to his right, saying:
Assalamu ‘alaykum wa Rahmatullah
Peace and Allah’s Mercy be on you

And to his left:
Assalamu ‘alaykum wa Rahmatullah
Peace and Allah’s Mercy be on you

Sometimes he would add to the greeting on the right:
Wa Barakaatuhu
…and His Blessings (be on you)

He would shorten his greeting on his left to:
Assalamu’alaykum
Peace be on you

Sometimes the Prophet would finish the Salaah by saluting only once, turning (his head) slightly to his right, saying:
Assalamu’alaykum
Peace be on you
Sitting in the final Tashahhud and the Tasleem
Adhkaar or supplications after Tasleem

Allah the Almighty says:

...وَالذّاكِرينَ اللّهَ كَثِيراً وَالذّاكِراتِ أَعْدَ اللّهُ نَّهِمٌ مَّعْفُرَةً وَ أَجْرًا عَظِيمًا

...And the men and women who remember Allah much with their hearts and tongues, Allah has prepared for them forgiveness and a great Reward. (Surah Al-Ahzaab: 35)

AND

فَإِذَا قَضِيَتِ الصَّلَاةُ فَانْذَرُوا اللَّهُ

When you have finished the Salaah remember Allah. (Surah AnNisaa’: 103)

There are many adhkaar that the Prophet ﷺ would make regularly, immediately after the fard prayers. And these were highly recommended by him ﷺ at various instances. Following are such adhkaar, which are to be said immediately after the Tasleem of the fard prayers, and before observing any subsequent nafl prayers. And one should recite them loudly.

Each person should supplicate individually and not in chorus or in harmony, since this was not the practice of the Sahaba at the time of the Prophet ﷺ or after. Supplicating in groups, in circles and in chorus with pebbles (or the like of it) was strictly rebuked as a bid’ah.

192 Like rosaries and dhikr-beeds, which are used by the Christians and the Hindus, is an innovation in our religion. The use of these is not evident from the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ nor the Sahaba nor the righteous generations.
(innovation in the religion) by Abdullah ‘Ibn Mas’ood رضي الله عنه, one of the greatest scholars of Islam and a close companion of the Prophet ﷺ. Once when he saw people indulging in making dhikr with pebbles, and in chorus, he confronted them saying: “What is this I see you doing?” they said, “O Abu Abdul-Ra’hmaan أبا عبد الرحمن، these are pebbles we are using to count our Takbeer (Allahu-Akbar), Tahleel (Laa-ilaha-illAllah) and Tasbeeh (Sub’han-Allah).” He said, “Count your bad deeds, and I guarantee that nothing of your good deeds will be wasted. Woe to you, O Ummah أمة محمد ﷺ of Muhammed ﷺ, how quickly you are getting destroyed! The companions of your Prophet are still alive, his garment is not yet worn out and his vessels are not yet broken. By the One in Whose hand is my soul, either you are following a way that is more guided than that of Muhammed ﷺ or you have opened a door of misguidance!” They said, “O Abu Abdul-Ra’hmaan، we only wanted to do good.” He said, “How many of those who wanted to good failed to achieve it! The Messenger of Allah ﷺ told us that people recite Qur’an and it does not go any further than their throats. By Allah, I do not know maybe most of them are people like you.” Then he turned away from them. ‘Amr bin Salaamah (who witnessed this incident) said, “I saw most of the men of those circles fighting alongside the Khawarij (against the Muslims) on the day of Nahrawaan.”

Thus people should refrain from doing acts that never existed in the religion brought by Prophet Muhammed ﷺ. Prophet Muhammed ﷺ used to say: ‘Every innovation (in religion, good or bad) is misguidance, and all misguidance is in the Hellfire.’(Abi Dawood)

None has the right to be worshipped but Allah, we are sincere in making our religious devotions to Him, even though the disbelievers may dislike it.

Using the fingers of your right hand\(^{195}\), supplicate the following:

- Allahu-Akbar (Allah is he Greatest)- 33 times
- Al’hamdu-lillah (All praise be to Allah)- 33 times
- Subhan-Allah (How Perfect is Allah/ Glory be to Allah)- 33 times

And conclude by saying:

- Laa-ilaha ill-Allahu wa’hdahu laa-shareekalah; lahul-mulku walahul-‘hamdu wahuwa ‘ala kulli shay-in-Qadeer – None has the right to be worshipped but Allah Alone, He has no partner, His is the dominion and His is all praises, and He is able to do all things - Once\(^{196}\)

Then one can recite Aayat-alKursiy (Surah Al-Baqarah: 255) - Once.

After that recite the last three chapters of the Qur’an, Surah Al-Al-Ikhlaas, Surah Al-Falaq and Suarah An-Naas - These three chapters are to be recited once each after Dhuhr, ‘Asr and ‘Isha and thrice each after Maghrib and Fajr.

(Abi Dawood, Tirmidhi, Nasa’i and Al Hakim)

One may end by saying:

Allahumma a-inni ‘ala dhikrika wa shukrika wa ‘husni ‘ibaadatik.

O Allah, help me to remember You, to give You thanks, and to perform Your worship in the best manner. (Abi Dawood and Nasa’i)

There is no particular order that one needs to follow while supplicating all the above. Any of the supplications can be recited in any order individually. And Allah knows best.

Tahajjud or Qiyaam-ul-layl (The standing up at night for AsSalaah)

The Prophet ﷺ would pray Tahajjud regularly. He would encourage his companions and household to stand at night in Salaah, and would also say regarding one who would sleep the whole night without praying ‘that (such) is a man in whose ears (or in whose ear) the devil urinated’. (Muslim)

Once he ﷺ visited Ali ﷺ and Fatimah ﷺ (his daughter) at night, and said: ‘Don’t you observe (Tahajjud) prayer? Ali said: “Messenger of Allah, verily our souls are in the hands of Allah and when He wants to awaken us, He awakens us. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ went back when I said this to him. He was striking his hand on his thigh while returning, and I heard him say:

وَ كَأَنَّ الْإِنسَانَ أَكْثَرَ شَيْءًا جَهَّلًا

‘And verily man is ever so quarrelsome (in dispute with many things)’ (Surah Al Kahf: 54)” 197

The Prophet ﷺ once said regarding a woman from Banu ‘Asad who prayed regularly at night: ‘Practice deeds as such, which you are capable of doing. By Allah, Allah does not grow weary but you will grow weary. The deeds most pleasing to Him are the ones that are done continuously’ (Muslim). Thus we should try to pray at night regularly.

Umm ul-Mu’mineen (The Mother of Believers) ‘Aisha ﷺ was once asked about the night prayer of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ during the month of Ramadan. She said: ‘The Messenger of Allah ﷺ did not observe either in Ramadan or in other months, more than eleven rak’ahs (of the night prayer). He (first) observed four rak’ahs (in twos). Ask not about their excellence and their length (i.e. these were incomparable in perfection and length). He again observed four 197 Muslim.

rak’ahs, and ask not about their excellence and length. He would then observe three rak’ahs (in one narration, ‘…he would then observe Witr and then observe two rak’ahs…’).’ (Muslim)

The Messenger of Allah ﷺ used to order them: ‘He who observed the night prayer should make Witr the end of his prayer before dawn’, and also said ‘Witr is a rak’ah at the end of the night prayer’. (Muslim)

A person should not pray Witr like the Maghrib prayer, i.e. praying two rak’ahs then getting up for the third after the tashahhud. There is no evident of the Prophet ﷺ doing so. Since he ﷺ said: ‘Pray as you have seen me praying.’ Moreover the following two ways are evident from the Sunnah. So one should:
1. Pray three rak’ahs of Witr together without the tashahhud after two rak’ahs, unto the third rak’ah and make the Tasleem, or
2. Make the tashahhud and Tasleem after two rak’ahs and then pray a single rak’ah and make the Tasleem.

Qunoot in the Five Prayers and in Witr

When the Prophet ﷺ wanted to supplicate for or against someone, he would perform the qunoot in the last rak’ah, sometimes after rukoo‘; after having said:

سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِيدٌ

Sami’ Allahu liman ‘hamida

Allah listens to one who praises Him, he would stand up, ‘raise his hands’200, ‘supplicate loudly’201, and ‘those behind him would say Aameen’202 (after each supplication). He used to perform the qunoot sometimes, in the (odd) rak’ah of the Witr prayer\textsuperscript{203} sometimes before the rukoo’\textsuperscript{204} The Messenger of Allah ﷺ was known to perform qunoot in all five prayers.\textsuperscript{205} He would do so, during a calamity.\textsuperscript{206}

It is a proven fact that wiping the face with both hands after any supplication made while raising the hands, is not from the Sunnah of the Prophet ﷺ, nor the sahaba, nor any of the righteous Salaf. Most of the scholars of the Sunnah have declared it to be a bid’ah (innovation) in the religion of Muhammed ﷺ.\textsuperscript{207} Also there is no qunoot after any fard Salaah. The regular practice of the Imam and the people making du’as in congregation after every fard Salaah is not proven from the Prophet ﷺ, so it should not be done. In fact people should strive against such practices, which are an innovation in our religion.

He ﷺ taught Hasan ibn ‘Ali ﷺ to say [after finishing his recitation in Witr]:

\textit{Allahumma-hdinee feeman hadayt, wa’afinee feeman ‘aafayt, wa-tawallane feeman tawallayt, wa-baariklee feemaa a’tayt, wa-qinee sharra maa qadayt, (fa) innaka taqdee wa-laa yuqda ‘alayk, (wa) tbaarik’t ribbaa wa-taawal-lee’t (laa maa’haa mink, (wa’lla’i lee’k)\textit{}}

(There is no place of safety from You except towards You).

(Ibn Shaibah, Abi Dawood, Ahmed, Tabaraani and Baihaqi)

Ubayy bin Ka’b and Abu Haleemah Mu’aadh al-Ansari, during the reign of Ameer-ul-Mu’mineen ‘Umar used to send prayers on the Prophet (As-Salaah’alan-Nabiyy) at the end of the qunoot. Hence some of the scholars have allowed this addition, to send Salâm to the Prophet, which is justified by the practice of the Salaf, even though there is no strong (Saheeh) narration with regards to this. Allah knows Best.

Salat-ul-Istikhara (Prayer for seeking what is beneficial, from Allah)

Allah the Exalted says:

...وَ شَآوْرُهُمْ فِي الْآمَرِ، فَإِذَا عَرَّضَتْ فَتَوُّكَلَّ عَلَى الَّذِي يُحْبِبُهُ الْمَتَّوْكِلِينَ، إِنْ يَنْصَرُ كُلَّمَثْلٍ لَّا غَلْبَةً لَّكُمْ وَ إِنْ يَحْذَرُكُمْ فَمَنْ ذَالِكَ يَنْصَرُ كُلَّمَثْلٍ مَّنْ بَعْدَهُ وَ عَلَى اللَّهِ فَلْيُكْتَلَّ الْمُؤْمِنُينَ

...and consult them in the affairs, then when you have taken a decision, put your trust in Allah, certainly, Allah loves those who put their trust in Him. If Allah Helps you, none can overcome you; and if He forsakes you, who is there after Him that can help you? And in Allah (Alone) let the believers put their trust.

(Surah Aal ‘Imraan 3:159)

No one knows the result of an action one intends to do accept Allah whether it will be beneficial or harmful for him. Therefore the Prophet ﷺ taught the Muslims to recite a supplication before starting any work, in order to seek help from Allah in its achievement. After reciting this supplication as indicated in the hadeeth below, one should start his work intending to complete it. If that work is beneficial for him, Allah will help it come through; but if it is harmful, Allah will create such causes, which will prevent him from doing that work.²⁰⁹

Jabir ibn ‘Abdullah ﷺ said: the Apostle of Allah ﷺ used to teach us the supplication for Istikhara as he would teach us a Surah from the Qur’an. He would tell us: ‘When one of you intends to do a work, he should offer two nafl (supererogatory) rak’ahs of prayer and then let him say:

اللّهُمَّ إِنِّي أَسْتَخْبِرُك بِعَلْمِكَ، وَأَسْتَقْدَرْك بِقُدْرَتِكَ، وَأَسْتَأْلَكْ مِنْ فَضْلِكَ

O Allah I seek what is good from You by Your knowledge, and I seek power from You by Your Power, and I ask You for Your vast Grace, For You have Power, and I have no power, and You know while I do not know, and You Know the unseen. O Allah! If You know that this work (what one intends to do, should be mentioned now) is good for me, for my religion and for my livelihood, for my next World (Hereafter), and for the consequence of this work of mine, then decree it for me, make it easy for me and give blessings to me in it. O Allah! If You know that it is evil for me and for all those things mentioned formerly, then turn me away from it, and turn it away from me, and appoint for me what is good, wherever it may be, and make me pleased with it.’ Another version goes: ‘If the work is good immediately or subsequently.’

(Bukhari and Abi Dawood)

The phrase ‘then let him say’ would seem to imply that the du’aa should be said after finishing the prayer, and the word thumma (then) probably means after reciting all the words of the Salaah and before saying the Tasleem.210

“One of the widespread myths about Salat-ul-Istikhara is that it should only be observed before sleeping, and whatever good one sees in his dream which makes him happy means, what he wanted to do is good and will be made easy for him, otherwise it is not good. There is no Saheeh daleel (evidence) for this as far as we know.

210 From the commentary of al-Haafiz Ibn Hijr (may Allaah have mercy on him) on the hadeeth in Saheeh al-Bukhaari, Kitaab al-Da’waat and Kitaab al-Tawheed. Please refer to question # 2217 on www.islam-qa.com for details.

The above does not mean that if you feel happy it is not a sign, but this should not be regarded as the only sign about whether or not the matter is good. People often make Salat-ul-Istikhara about something they like or want to do, so they feel happy about it from the outset.

The correct view is that when Allah makes something easy for you – after having decreed it and accepted your du’a – this is a sign that it is good to go ahead and do it. The existence of obstacles and difficulties is an indication that Allah is pushing His slave away from doing it. This meaning will be very clear when one ponders the meaning of the hadeeth of Jabir Ṣallallahu ‘alayhi wa sallam concerning al-Istikhara. ‘…O Allah! If You know that this work (what one intends to do, should be mentioned now) is good for me...(till the end).’

Ibn ‘Allaan – after transmitting the scholarly view that the hadeeth of Anas is da’eef (weak) – said: ‘Therefore it was said: that after (doing Istikhara) he should do what he wants [(i.e. the reason why one made the Istikhara), even if he does not feel that sense of being happy] because whatever happens after doing Istikhara is good…’.

Sheikh al-Islam [Ibn Taymiyah] (may Allah have mercy on him) said concerning the matter of feeling happy about something: if he makes Istikhara, then whatever Allah makes him feel happy about and makes easy for him, this is what Allah has chosen for him. (Majmoo’ al-Fataawaa, 10/539).”

AsSalaah in Jam’ah (Prayer in Congregation)
Virtues of praying in the Mosque with the Jam’ah

Allah the Exalted says:

إنَّما يُعِمْرُ مسَاجِدُ اللهِ مَنْ عَامَّ الْهَـٰذِيَاءِ وَ أَقَامَ الصَّلَاةَ وَ عَاتِى
الرَّكَوَةَ وَ لَمْ يَحْمَشِنَّ إِلَّا اللَّهُ فَعِمِسَ أَوْلَادُكَ أَنْ يَكُونُواَ مِنَ الْمُهْتَدِينَ

The Mosques of Allah should be maintained by those who believe in Allah and the Last Day, perform AsSalaah, and give Zakah and fear none but Allah. It is they who are on true guidance.
(Surah AlTaubah 9:18)

Muslims can only maintain the mosques when they enjoin (at least) the five obligatory Salaahs, in the mosques. Otherwise the enemies of Allah will destroy them, and the ones who should be friends of Allah, won’t know.

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘A prayer offered in a congregation is twenty seven (darajah) degree more rewardable than a prayer offered by a single person (by himself)’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

Being neglectful and making a habit of sleeping at the times of prayer, could have severe consequences for a man. The Prophet ﷺ said he was shown ‘a man lying down, and behold, another man was standing over his head, holding a big rock. Behold, he was throwing the rock at the man’s head, smashing it. The rock rolled away and the thrower followed it and took it back. By the time he reached the man (lying), his head returned to its normal state. The thrower did the same as he had done before (and kept repeating).’ The Prophet was later informed that this man was ‘the symbol of the one who studies the Qur’an, and then neither recites it, nor acts on its orders, and sleeps neglecting his enjoined prayers.’ (Bukhari)

212 Recommended reading: ‘Friends of Allah and friends of shaytan?’ by Sheikh-ul-Islam Ibn Taymiyah (may Allah have Mercy on his soul)
The Prophet ﷺ gave great importance to the congregational prayer for men. Unless a man has a valid excuse, it is compulsory for him to pray with the Jam’ah in the Mosque.

The Prophet ﷺ once had thought of ‘giving orders for fuel-wood to be gathered, and giving orders for Salaah and having the iqamah (call to prayer) called out, then ordering a man to lead the people, then going off to some people who are not present for their prayer (in the Mosque) and burning down their houses upon them’ (Bukhari and Muslim). This shows that a man should pray with the congregation in the mosque, at its proper time.

Women are not obliged to come to the mosques\(^{213}\) nor should they be stopped from going to the mosques, since the Prophet ﷺ said: ‘Don’t prevent your women from going to the mosque when they seek your permission.’ (Muslim)

A Muslimah should keep in mind the etiquettes of going outside the house. She should, be properly dressed in thick outer cloak that covers her body upto her feet. She should take care while walking, and not walk in a bubbly way resembling kaafir or unchaste women.

Allah the Most Gracious says:

وَلَا يَضْرِبْنَ بَأَرْجُلَهُنَّ لِيُعْلَمَ مَا يَخْفِينَ مِنْ زَيْتُنَّهُنَّ

And let them (believing women) not stamp their feet so as to reveal what they hide of their adornment. (Surah AnNoor 24:31)

And she should not go out wearing perfume. Since Abu Hurairah ﷺ heard the Prophet ﷺ saying: ‘Any woman who goes out to the mosque wearing perfume, Allah does not accept her Salaah unless she returns home and makes ghusl’; which means that the Salaah (that she has offered) will not be accepted and she has to come back and make ghusl and repeat her Salaah. He also called a woman who wears perfume and goes out a Zaani (fornicator).\textsuperscript{214}

It is very important that a Muslim keeps himself steadfast in all the five prayers, especially the ‘Isha and Fajr prayers, in order to keep himself from hypocrisy. Since the Prophet said: ‘The most burdensome prayers for the hypocrites are the ‘Isha and the Fajr prayers…’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

A man should join the Jam’ah even if he has prayed since the Prophet ordered us to do so, saying; ‘…if you have prayed at your homes and then came (to the mosque) while the Imam has not yet performed the prayer, you must pray with him, and it will be a voluntary prayer for you.’ (Ahmed)

And ‘whoever performs Wudu perfectly, and then goes to the mosque and finds that people have already finished the prayer (in congregation), Allah will give a reward like one who prayed in congregation…’ (Abi Dawood)

The Prophet also said: ‘The most excellent prayer of a person is (that which he prays) in his house except that which is prescribed (which should be prayed in the mosque).’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

The worshipper gets rewarded for each step he takes towards the mosque to join the congregational prayer\textsuperscript{215}. While heading towards the mosque, a person should ‘walk with tranquility and dignity and not rush (or run)\textsuperscript{216}, and whatever portion he gets (along with the Imam), he should offer it, and complete afterwards whatever he has missed.’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

\textsuperscript{215} Bukhari.
\textsuperscript{216} Running to the mosque to catch prayer, is prohibited. (Muslim)
Etiquettes of the worshippers behind the Imam in Jam’ah

The one who is worthy of leading the Jam’ah is the one with the most knowledge amongst the people. The following hadith describes the qualities of an Imam. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘The one who recites the Book of Allah most\textsuperscript{217} should be the Imam of the people. If they are equal in the recitation, then the one who knows the Sunnah [of the Prophet ﷺ] most, and if they are equal in the Sunnah then the earliest of them to emigrate (to al-Madinah) and if they are equal in the emigration, then the oldest among them in Islam (or in age). (Muslim) ‘Amr bin Salama once led the companions of the Prophet ﷺ in prayer when they could not find anyone more knowledgeable than him. He (‘Amr bin Salama) was only ‘six or seven years old’ then,\textsuperscript{218} and the Prophet ﷺ approved this. This shows that the age of the Imam is not a criterion once the basic requirements of the Imamate are fulfilled, and if the young man in consideration has a good presence of mind.

Once in the Jam’ah behind the Imam, a person should follow the etiquette of the Jam’ah that the Prophet ﷺ has set for the worshippers. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘The Imam has been appointed to be followed, so when he utters the Takbeer (AllahuAkbar), utter the Takbeer too, and do not utter

\begin{footnotesize}

\item \textsuperscript{218} Bukhari, Abi Dawood and Nasaa’i.
\end{itemize}
\end{footnotesize}
The Etiquette of standing behind the Imam - feet to feet and shoulder to shoulder

“...so when he (Imam) utters the Takbeer (AllahuAkbar), utter the Takbeer too, and do not utter the Takbeer until he utters it...And when he prostrates, (then) prostrate; and do not prostrate until he prostrates” the Takbeer until he utters it; and when he bows, you bow, and do not bow until he bows (in rukoo’). And when he says

سَمِعَ اللَّهُ لِمَنْ حَمِدَ

Sami’ Allahu liman ‘hamida

Allah listens to one who praises Him,

then say

اللَّهُمَّ رَبَّنَا لَكَ الْحَمْدَ

Allahumma Rabbana lakal ‘Hamd

O Allah! Our Lord, to You be all Praise

And when he prostrates, prostrate; and do not prostrate until he prostrates. When he prays standing, pray standing, and when he prays sitting, all of you pray sitting.’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

The above hadeeth outlines the basic etiquette of the one praying in congregation. So one should be careful not to precede the Imam in any action of the Salaah, which could invalidate the persons Salaah, and the consequences could be worse. The Prophet ﷺ warned about this saying: ‘Isn’t he who raises his head before the Imam afraid that Allah may transform his head into that of a donkey or his figure into that of a donkey?’ (Bukhari).

The worshippers should align themselves well in the rows, while in Jam’ah behind the Imam. Allah’s Messenger ﷺ used to say: ‘Stand close together in your rows, bring them near one another, and stand neck to neck’, in one narration, ‘straighten your rows, or Allah will create a discord within your hearts.’ Also, ‘If the prayer rows become sparsely spread (with gaps between men) then by Allah I can visualize shaytan 219 Abi Dawood and Nasaa’i, Ibn Hibban graded it Saheeh. (Bulugh al-Maram). ‘Neck to neck’ here implies the same as ‘knee to knee’, which is mentioned in another narration. Which means that (i) People should stand close to each other and (ii) All their necks or knees should be in a straight linear position, and no person should be ahead of another while in the row.

220 Bukhari and Muslim therein.’ 221 He also used to warn the sahaba saying: ‘Straighten your rows or Allah will alter your faces.’ 222
Keeping these instructions in mind, the companions used to join their ankles and arms close to each other (without any gap between two persons) 223. Thus we should follow the example of those ‘whom Allah is pleased with’ 224 (the Sahaba).

He also always encouraged the men to pray upfront in the mosque. He would say: ‘The best of the men’s rows is the first and the worst is the last 225, and the best of the women’s rows is the last and the worst is the first.’ 226 (Muslim)

The prayer of a person who prays alone behind the rows of a Jam’ah is not accepted and the person should repeat his prayer. Narrated Waabisa bin Ma’bad 227: “Allah’s Messenger saw a man praying alone behind the row (of the Jam’ah) and he ordered him to repeat the Salaah.” 227 At-Tabaraani added, “Why did you not join them or pull back a man (to your position)?” Ibn Hibbanrepted from Talq bin ‘Ali]: “The prayer of a person who prays alone behind the row (of a Jam’ah) is not

223 Muhammed bin Ismail AsSanani in Subul us-Salam, explanation of Bulugh al-Maram
224 Surah AlBayyinah 98:8
225 Nowadays we have hardly two rows full at certain Salaahs. That’s a shame. We should try to occupy the first.
226 This is because at the time of the Prophet and the Salaf, the women used to pray in the mosques quite often, and there would be no barrier segregating them from the men, they would all pray in the same area. And if the men would turn back (their heads) they would be able to see the women, behind them. Hence the women were encouraged to take the last rows. But today this is not the case, since the mosques that have a prayer area for women, are well segregated, with a wall or a curtain.

accepted." So one should not offer his Salaah by standing alone while a congregational prayer is in progress, and should do as mentioned above.

As Salaah in Jam’ah can be observed with at least two people. However in this case both the individuals are required to stand knee-to-knee and shoulder-to-shoulder. The one leading the prayer should be on the left of the other person.

One should also have the presence of mind, and consideration for others in Jam’ah. A person should soften his shoulders and stance for those next to him and not be harsh in any way to his Muslim brothers.

People should be extremely careful about not walking across someone praying in the Mosque, or elsewhere, since the Prophet had severely warned against this saying, ‘...if the person knew what he was taking upon himself (by walking across) he would stand there (and wait, till the other person finished his Salaah) for forty...’ the narrator did not remember whether he said forty days, weeks, months or years. Similarly those praying in the Mosque should also remember the obligation to pray behind a Sutrah, and avoid praying near entrances and exits or back of the mosques.

A person should take utmost care not to eat anything that would give an offensive smell, before coming to the mosque. The Prophet

228 Bulugh al Maram –Hafiz Ibn Hajar al-Asqalani
229 As evident from the hadeeth of Ibn ‘Abbas in Saheeh al-Bukhari, when once he prayed alone with the Prophet, he (Ibn ‘Abbas) stepped back during As Salaah but the Prophet beckoned him (pulled him forward, next to him).

prohibited men to eat garlic, onions, and leek etc. before coming to the mosque. A Muslim should not smoke cigarettes, which give an offensive smell not only from the mouth of that unthoughtful person, but also from his body, hair and clothes.

So we see how important it is to follow the discipline of the Jam’ah. A Muslim should also follow a similar discipline in his life. That’s what our religion was sent for. And the Prophet was reported to have said: ‘I have not been sent, except to perfect good manners.’ (Bukhari)

The Second congregation in the mosque
The Messenger of Allah saw a man praying alone, He said: ‘Is there any man who would do good to this (man) and pray along with him?’ (Abi Dawood)

The question of establishing the second congregational prayer is disputed among the scholars. Even though this hadith (tradition) might indicate that it is permissible to make Salaah in Jam’ah twice in a mosque. Imam Ahmed ibn Hanbal, Ishaq and others hold this view. Others maintain that it is not permissible to establish the Jam’ah again, if it has been held once. Those who come late and miss the first congregation should observe their Salaah alone. This is maintained by Sufyaan, Ibn al-Mubarak, Malik and Shaf’i. However the reward is with Allah. It was the general practice of the Sahaba to pray alone, if missed the congregation. And Allah knows Best.

Based on the following ahadeeth we know that it is allowed for a person to join a congregation even if he has prayed his fard prayer in congregation or alone earlier.

The Prophet (ﷺ) said: ‘…if you have prayed at your homes and then came (to the mosque) while the Imam has not yet performed the prayer, you must pray with him, and it will be a voluntary prayer for you.’ (Ahmed)

Mu‘aadh ibn Jabal used to pray ‘Isha with the Messenger of Allah (ﷺ), and then return and lead his people in prayer.²³⁵

Salat-ul-Jumu’ah (Friday Prayer)

The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) would say: ‘People must cease to neglect the Jumu’ah (Friday) prayers, or else Allah will seal their hearts and then they will be among the unwary.’ (Muslim)

Being neglectful could not only mean missing the Friday Salaah, but also being neglectful of the different aspects that are involved in it. Jumu’ah is the weekly ‘Eid, and a special day for Muslims. No doubt most of the Muslims attend the Jumu’ah prayers, but how many of them respect it and prepare for it, in order to benefit from it, the way it was taught by our beloved Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ)? He (ﷺ) said: ‘Any person who takes ghusl on Jumu’ah like the ghusl of Janabah (sexual defilement) and then goes for the Salaah (in the early hour), it is as if he had sacrificed a camel (in Allah’s cause); and whoever goes in the second hour it is as if he had sacrificed a cow; and whoever goes in the third hour then it is as if he had sacrificed a horned ram; and if one goes in the fourth hour, it is as if he had sacrificed a hen; and whoever goes in the fifth hour then it is as if he had offered an egg. When the Imam comes out [to deliver the Khutbah (sermon)], the angels present themselves to listen to the Khutbah.²³⁶’

²³⁵ It is a part of the lengthy hadeeth, which has the incident of the young man who removed himself from the congregation, which was led by Mu’aadh (ﷺ) and prayed alone, of which the Prophet (ﷺ) was notified, reported by Bukhari, Muslim, Abi Dawood, Ahmed, Ibn Khuzaimah and Baihaqi.

another narration: ‘...The angels keep writing the names of the people as they enter the mosque until the Imam sits down to give Khutbah. Then the angels collect (close) their registers and sit and listen to the Khutbah.’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

The Prophet ﷺ also said: ‘Whoever takes a bath on Jumu’ah, purifies himself as much as he can, then uses his (hair) oil or perfumes himself with the scent of his house (in one narration: even if it is his wife’s perfume), then proceeds (for the Jumu’ah prayer) and does not separate two persons sitting together (in the mosque)\textsuperscript{237}, then prays as much as (Allah has) written for him and then remains silent while the Imam is delivering the Khutbah, his sins between the present and the last Jumu’ah will be forgiven.’ (Bukhari)

The Prophet ﷺ said: ‘Whoever speaks in Jumu’ah while the Imam is giving the Khutbah, he is like a donkey which carries books, and he who tells him to be quiet has no Jumu’ah.’ (Ahmed)

A person should make sure that he wears his best clothes, uses miswak (brush his teeth) and goes to the mosque for the Jumu’ah prayer. The Prophet ﷺ used to repeatedly tell them to use siwak or miswak.\textsuperscript{238}

It was also recommended by the Messenger of Allah ﷺ to go walking for Jumu’ah prayer, he said: ‘Anyone whose feet are covered with dust in Allah’s cause, shall be saved by Allah from Hell-Fire.’ (Bukhari)

Once in the mosque, a person should remember the etiquettes of being in the mosque, by not talking, eating, drinking, making unwanted gestures, drawing lines on the floor, playing with the hair or beard, coughing unnecessarily, being restless and disturbing others by anything that disturbs them, lest his reward for the Jumu’ah shall be completely lost. It is also forbidden ‘that a man should make another man get up to sit in his place, not only in Jumu’ah but any other prayer’239.

A person should offer at least two rak’ahs of prayer once he enters the mosque even if the Khutbah is being delivered, since once the Prophet was delivering the Khutbah during Jumu’ah when a man entered the mosque and sat down and the Prophet ordered him to ‘Get up and pray two rak’ahs (of prayer)’. (Bukhari)

The Prophet used to regularly offer two rak’ahs before and two rak’ahs after Jumu’ah prayer.240 One should also remember that there is ‘an hour (of opportunity) on Friday, and if a Muslim gets it while offering Salaah and asks something from Allah, then Allah will definitely meet his demand.’ (Bukhari)

The Salat-ul-Jumu’ah consists of only two rak’ahs, to be prayed in Jam’ah in the mosque behind the Imam. If someone catches one rak’ah of the Jumu’ah prayer, then he should pray one more, after the Imam has finished, and it will be accepted.241 But if one catches the Jumu’ah after the rukoo’ of the second rak’ah, then he should continue to pray four rak’ahs of the Dhuhr prayer after the Imam has finished.242 Women praying at home should also pray the four rak’ahs of Dhuhr, since the two rak’ahs of Salat-ul-Jumu’ah is only for the ones who attend the mosque.

Salat-ul-‘Eidayn [Prayers of the two ‘Eids (Festivals)]

The Prophet emphasized that all the Muslims must join the ‘Eid prayers, so much so that Umm ‘Atiya said: ‘We were commanded to bring out on ‘Eid-ul-Fitr and ‘Eid-ul-Adha, the young women and the menstruating women to participate in the goodness and supplications of the Muslims, but the menstruating women would refrain from Salat-ul-’Eid.’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

Allah’s Messenger said: (‘Eid) Al-Fitr is the day on which the people break the fast, and (‘Eid) Al-Adha is the day they offer sacrifices. (Tirmidhi)

The Prophet would eat dates (in odd numbers) before leaving for the ‘Eid-ul-Fitr Salat-ul-’Eid. And for the occasion of ‘Eid-ul-Adha he would say: ‘The first (thing) to do on this day of ours, is to offer Salat-ul-’Eid and on returning (from the Salat) we slaughter our sacrifices (animals); and whoever did this, he acted on our Sunnah.’ (Bukhari)

It is forbidden to slaughter the animal before the Salat-ul-’Eid; it should be done only after returning from the Salat-ul-’Eid. (Bukhari)

The Sunnah is to go to the place of the Salat-ul-’Eid, walking along one route and coming back by another. (Bukhari and Abi Dawood)

The Prophet never offered any prayer just before Salat-ul-’Eid, but when he went back home, he used to pray to rak’ahs. (Ibn Majah) In one narration: ‘He did not pray (any Salat) before nor after (Salat-ul-’Eid).’ (Bukhari and Muslim)

The Salat-ul-‘Eid, is offered when the sun is reached at a good height above the horizon, in the forenoon, in the early hours after sunrise.

The Salat-ul-‘Eid-ul-Adha should be offered earlier than that of the day of Fitr (day of breaking fast).

Salat-ul-‘Eid can be prayed in the mosque, if there is rainfall (or bad weather conditions) otherwise it should be prayed in an open land or space, where all the inhabitants of a town can gather.

There is no Adhan (call to prayer) or iqamah for both the Salat-ul-‘Eidayn. (Bukhari, Muslim and Abi Dawood)

There are only two rak‘ahs to be offered! in Jam‘ah (congregation), for Salat-ul-‘Eidayn.

‘Aisha Ṣaid: “The Apostle of Allah would say the Takbeer seven times in the first rak‘ah and five times in the second rak‘ah on the day of the breaking of the fast and on the day sacrifice (on the occasions of both the ‘Eid prayers). A similar narration is reported by ‘Amr bin Shu‘aib adding “and the recitation of the Qur’an in both (rak‘ahs) is after the Takbeer.” (Abi Dawood)

“The most correct manner, and number of Takbeers, in the Salat-ul-‘Eid, is what are mentioned in the above ahadeeth. Some people act upon the practice which is reported to be held by Ibn Mas‘ud Ṣaid, in which besides Takbeer Tahreema (opening Takbeer) and Takbeer rukoo‘, there are six extra Takbeerat, three of which are pronounced in the first raka‘ah prior to the recitation of the Qur’an, and the remaining three in the

Salat-ul-Janazah (The Funeral Prayer)

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘A believer who accompanies a funeral procession of a Muslim out of sincere faith and hoping to attain Allah’s reward and remains with it till the funeral prayer is offered and the burial ceremonies are over, he will return with a reward of two Qiraat. Each Qiraat is like the size of the (mount) Uhud. He who offers the funeral prayer only and returns before the burial, will return with the reward of one Qiraat only.’ (Bukhari)

Joining a funeral procession is also one of the rights of a Muslim upon another. The Messenger of Allah ﷺ said: ‘If any Muslim dies and forty men who associate nothing with Allah offer prayer on him, Allah will accept them as intercessors for him.’ (Muslim)

Place and time of Salaat-ul-Janazah

Funeral prayers can be offered in the open, or in the mosque, facing the dead person. The Prophet ﷺ prayed the funeral prayer for the two sons of Baida, in the mosque. It is also reported authentically that

The \textit{Imam} should face the dead body, which is between him and the direction of the \textit{Qiblah}. This prayer is offered while standing. All the requirements of offering \textit{AsSalaah} apply, for the funeral prayer, like the \textit{Tahara}, the \textit{Niyah}, the \textit{Qiblah}, the \textit{Takbeer}, reciting \textit{Al-Fatihah}, sending prayers to the Prophet  (\textit{AsSalaah ‘alanNabiy}) and the \textit{Tasleem}. The people should stand in rows (preferably in an odd number of rows), behind the \textit{Imam}, and the etiquettes of \textit{Jam’ah} should be followed.

The Prophet  is reported to have pronounced four, five, seven and as many as eight \textit{Takbeerat}. Umar  had unified people on four, by a common consensus and the same is acted upon to this day.\textsuperscript{259}

First Takbeer and what follows
The Imam raises his hands (rafu-yadain) and says the first Takbeer and the people follow him. Supplications before Al-Fatihah (explained earlier) can be made and then Surah Al-Fatihah should be recited, since there is no prayer valid without the Mother of the Qur’an (Al-Fatihah). The same etiquette of recitation should be followed as explained earlier in this book. The Imam for this prayer does not make the recitation loud. Any other small Surah can be recited after Al-Fatihah, if one wishes to.

Second Takbeer and what follows
The Imam says the second Takbeer and the people follow. Raising the hands (rafu-yadain) is not required. Then everyone should send prayers to the Prophet [AsSalaah ‘alanNabiyl], like in tashahhud.

Third Takbeer and what follows
The third Takbeer is then pronounced, and the people do the same. Then people can individually make supplications for the deceased, with any supplication they please, or the Imam may supplicate loudly and the people can say Aameen after each supplication, since the Sahaba who recorded the supplications for the Janazah, from the Prophet all heard him supplicating these Du’as during the Salat-ul-Janazah.

Fourth Takbeer and the Tasleem
The Imam says the forth Takbeer and the worshippers behind the Imam follow. Then the Imam ends the Salaah with Tasleem, and the people do the same. There is no making of Du’as after this, since one of the purposes of the Salat-ul-Janazah is to make Du’as for the deceased during it, and making du’as after it is not proven from the Sunnah.
Prayer of a traveller and a sick person

Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘Allah the Most High likes His concessions to be practiced just as he dislikes the disobedience to Him, (in one version: ‘…as he likes His duties to be observed.’).’ (Ahmed)

The Prophet ﷺ would usually pray only two rak’ahs (called Qasr) instead of four, of the Dhuhr, ‘Asr and ‘Isha while on a journey; he ﷺ once saw some people praying and, found that they were observing nafl prayers, while he was in his tent. He ﷺ remarked to them: ‘If I could pray nafl, then I should have prayed the complete fard prayer.’ [So one should not offer any prayers before or after the fard, since the Messenger ﷺ did not do so, and “Indeed in the Messenger of Allah you have the best example to follow” - Al Ahzab 33:21.]

He ﷺ would combine his Dhuhr and ‘Asr prayers while on a journey. And also combine his Maghrib and ‘Isha prayers, without reducing the Maghrib prayer. Iqamah for each prayer was pronounced. (Bukhari)

It was also the usual practice of most of the righteous companions and their students, to pray two rak’ahs while traveling, or visiting a place with the intention of returning in a fixed number of days as a traveller. So if one intends to travel, he should make his prayers short (Qasr).

Allah’s Apostle ﷺ used to shorten his prayer (pray Qasr), even if he traveled for a distance of three miles, or if he decided to stay a fixed number of days at a place of non-residence.\textsuperscript{267} A person thus can be the best judge with regards to whether he is on a journey or not, since nowadays commuting hundreds of miles can be done within hours and a person may finish all his needs, and be back at the place of residence, without realizing that he has travelled. However the option is still open to make \textit{At-Taqseer} (shortened prayers).

Once the Prophet \textsuperscript{268} prayed while sitting in a cross-legged position\textsuperscript{268}. He \textsuperscript{268} resorted to such a sitting posture during a prayer due to a justifiable excuse.\textsuperscript{269} A \textit{hadeeth} states that the Prophet \textsuperscript{268} suffered from a blister on his thigh, and if a person suffers from a disease or injury, he is allowed to offer his prayer in whatever posture he can, without any restrictions. This is a boon from Allah.”270

‘Imran ibn Husain ꝏ said, “I was suffering from hemorrhoids (piles), so I asked the Messenger of Allah ꝏ and he said, ‘Pray standing; if you are not able, then sitting down; if you are not able to do so, then pray lying down.’” (Bukhari, Abi Dawood and Ahmed)

He ꝏ also asked him ꝏ about the prayer of a man while sitting, so he ꝏ said, ‘He who prays standing that is better; he who prays sitting, his reward is half of the former. He who prays lying down (in another narration: reclining), has half the reward of the one who sits.’271 This also applies to the sick person, for Anas ꝏ said, “The Messenger of Allah ꝏ came out to the people while they were sitting and praying due to illness, so he ꝏ said, ‘Verily the prayer of one who sits is (worth) half of the prayer of the one who stands.’”272

Once he ꝏ visited a sick person and saw him praying (leaning) on a pillow, so he took it and cast it aside. So the man took a stick to pray (leaning) on it, but he ꝏ took it and cast it aside and said: ‘Pray on the ground if you can, but otherwise, make movements with your head, making your sujood lower than your rukoo’.273

271 Ibid. Khattabi said, “The meaning of ‘Imran’s hadeeth is intended for a sick person who is able to undergo hardship and stand with difficulty. Hence the reward of praying sitting has been made half of the reward of praying standing; encouraging him to pray standing while allowing him to sit.” Ibn Hajr said in Fath al-Baari (2/468): “This deduction is valid”.

AsSalaah in shoes or sandals

Like so many other Sunnahs of the beloved Messenger of Allah ﷺ, this too seems to be dying. In fact people have taken it to such extents that they treat it like a haraam (prohibited) act. We should keep in mind several narrations of the Prophet ﷺ before we act in haste.

Narrated Abu Hurairah ﷺ, Allah’s Messenger ﷺ said: ‘All my followers will enter Paradise except those who refuse.’ They said ‘O Allah’s Messenger! Who will refuse?’ He said: ‘Whoever obeys me will enter Paradise, and whoever disobeys me is the one who refuses (to enter it).’ (Bukhari)

He ﷺ also said: “Whoever turns away from my Sunnah has nothing to do with me.” (Bukhari)

It is clearly evident from many strong narrations that wearing shoes (normal daily-use shoes) and praying (Salaah) in the mosque and elsewhere, was a regular practice of the Prophet ﷺ and his companions. Moreover the Prophet ﷺ used to order them to make Salaah in their shoes.274

274 Abi Dawood.
275 Keeping the sandals on the left side (if nobody’s there) or in between the feet, while praying was the practice and instruction of the Messenger of Allah ﷺ. (Abi Dawood)
276 Meaning, wear sandals or shoes and pray. A Muslim thus should strive to be different from the Jews or Christians or Non-Muslims. This was a part of the life of the early Muslims. Unfortunately this practice of differing from them has reduced so much so that today one can hardly tell the difference between a Muslim or a Non-Muslim, whether at work or elsewhere, in neither the appearance nor character. Al-Tirmidhi reported that the Messenger of Allah ﷺ said, “He is not one of us who imitates people other than us. Do not imitate the Jews and Christians”, according to another version: “Whoever imitates a people is one of them.” (Reported by Imam
Abu Sa’eed al-Khudri said: ‘While the apostle of Allah was leading his companions in prayer, he took off his sandals and laid them on his left side; so when the people saw this, they removed their sandals. When the Apostle of Allah finished his prayer, he asked: ‘What made you remove your sandals?’ They replied: ‘We saw you remove your sandals, so we removed ours.’ The Apostle of Allah then said: ‘Jibraeel came to me and informed me that there was (khubuth or khubuthan) filth on them. When any of you comes to the mosque, he should see; if he finds filth on his sandals, he should wipe it off and pray in them.’ (Abi Dawood)

He also said: ‘Act differently from the Jews, for they do not pray in their sandals or their shoes.’ (Abi Dawood)

Ahmad) This is a staunch warning from the Messenger of Allah against all those who emulate the kuffar, by dressing like them, behaving like them, celebrating their festivals and even educating their children like them. A Muslim today has lost his identity and become a doormat to the world. And like they say, he’s ‘just another face in the crowd’. May Allah change our situation, Aameen, and grant us to follow the Sunnah of the greatest personality of all time.
However, wearing shoes inside mosques and places with well-kept carpets and floors is not wise. In such places we should practice the Sunnah of praying without shoes.

Even though there is ample of evidence of the Prophet not wearing his shoes and praying, one should try to practice both the Sunnahs of the Prophet.

Sujood as-Sahw (Prostrations of forgetfulness)

Sujood as-Sahw are two sajdahs (prostrations) made at the end of one’s Salaah, due to forgetfulness in it.

There are three basic conditions in AsSalaah for making Sujood as-Sahw:

1. Adding something in AsSalaah (Az-Ziyaadah)
2. Omitting something (Naqs)
3. Doubt (Shakk)

It should be understood that Sujood as-Sahw is performed only if someone falls into these three circumstances by mistake or due to forgetfulness. The one, who omits a non-obligatory part of his Salaah deliberately, will have less reward, but there is no Sujood as-Sahw for him.

1. Adding something in AsSalaah (Az-Ziyaadah)

Abdullah ibn Mas'ood said: "The Prophet prayed Dhuhr with five rak'ahs so someone said, 'Has increase been made in the Salaah?' So he replied, 'And why is that?' They said, 'You have prayed five (rak'ahs).' So he performed two prostrations after and gave the salutation..." (in another narration) "...so he turned his feet and faced the Qiblah, and performed two prostrations, then he gave the salutation." (Reported by the whole group)
"Saying the Tasleem before the completion of AsSalaah is a case of addition in the Salaah. A person’s prayer is nullified if he deliberately says Tasleem before the completion of the Salaah. If however it happens due to forgetfulness, and he does not remember this until after a long period of time, then he should complete his prayer and make the Tasleem, then prostrate for forgetfulness, and then again make Tasleem."

Narrated Abu Hurairah: “The Prophet led us and prayed two rak’ahs in either, Dhuhr or ‘Asr prayers, and said the Tasleem. He then got up and went towards a piece of wood, which was at the front part of the mosque, and placed his hands upon it. Abu Bakr and ‘Umer (may Allah be pleased with them) were among the people but they were afraid to speak to him. Some of the hasty type of people went out (of the mosque) saying, “Has the Salaah been shortened?” A man whom the Prophet called Dhul-Yadain (the one with long arms) stood up (asking him): “Have you forgotten, O Allah’s Messenger or has the prayer been shortened?” He said: ‘I have neither forgotten, nor has it been shortened.’ He then (in one narration: after confirming with the rest

279 In another narration of Bukhari: after he finished the Sujood as-Sahw he turned back after Tasleem and said: ‘إِنِّي أَنَا أَبْتَغُرُ مَنْ كَلَّمَكُمْ
Verily, I am a human being like you,
I forget as you forget, so if I forget, remind and inform me.’ Imam Malik’s version in Muattah has the addition ‘I do not forget but I am made to forget (in matters of Islam, by Allah) in order to teach you (the Muslims) new ways.’
280 According to my knowledge neither have I suffered from any forgetfulness nor there has been any Divine instruction for the prayer to be shortened.
of the people), prayed the remaining two rak‘ahs, and then said Tasleem. He then uttered the Takbeer and prostrated similar to his normal prostration, then raised his head and uttered the Takbeer. He then prostrated and uttered the Takbeer; the prostration was similar to his normal prostration or longer, then raised his head and uttered the Takbeer.” In another narration: “and he did not prostrate till Allah made certainty to this.” (Bukhari and Muslim)

This hadeeth clarifies that in case someone feels certain that he has completed prayer, performs the Tasleem, gets engaged in conversation and then realises his fault by recollection or someone else reminds him about it, his Salaah still remains valid provided he completes it right away and he does not need to repeat the whole prayer.

2. Omitting something (Naqs)
The one who misses any rukn (any Pillar, e.g. the Takbeer Tahreema, the qiyam, the rukoo’, the sujood, the final tashahhud etc.) deliberately or forgetfully there is no prayer for him, since his prayer is not established. The one who misses the Waajibaat (any obligation, eg. the first tashahhud, the jalsatul-istiraahah etc.) of As Salaah deliberately, then his Salaah is nullified.

Once the Prophet missed the first tashahhud after two rak‘ahs and made one tashahhud after four rak‘ahs, then made two prostrations (Sujood as-Sahw), before making Tasleem. (Bukhari and Muslim)

284 Some of the scholars advocate that Sujood as-Sahw should be performed before Tasleem, whereas some prefer to it to be done after Tasleem. Both of these situations are proven from the Prophet Ḥ. The Prophet Ḥ never specified any hard and fast rule concerning this, all through his life. It is mentioned in the book Nayl-ul-Autaar, if
This is a good example showing that it is not necessary to go back to the first tashahhud once a person has already stood up completely, since the qiyaam (standing) is one of the Arkaan (pillars), whereas the first tashahhud is one of the Wajibaat, which is inferior to a rukn (pillar). But if one has not completely stood up (and is half way up), then he should sit down and complete the first tashahhud, and then make the Sujood as-Sahw at the end of the Salaah. Whereas if one misses any rukn of AsSalaah then he is required to go back to that pillar which he missed in that rukoo’ and complete his Salaah from then onwards, not counting that particular rak’ah in which he missed a pillar of AsSalaah. For example, if he missed a rukoo’ in the first raka’ah and remembered it at the end of the second rak’ah, then he is required to go back to complete the first rak’ah, continue the remaining Salaah, make the Tasleem then make the Sujood as-Sahw, and then make the Tasleem.²⁸⁵

3. Doubt (Shakk)

Allah’s Messenger said: ‘When anyone of you is in doubt about his Salaah and does not know how many he has prayed, three or four (rak’ahs), he should cast aside his doubt and base his prayer on what he is sure of,²⁸⁶ then perform two prostrations before Tasleem. If he has prayed a rak’ah (more or less), they will make his Salaah, an even number²⁸⁷ for him and if he has some omission occurs in the prayer, the prostrations should be performed before Tasleem, and in case of any addition it should be performed after Tasleem. Some of the scholars are of the opinion that in view of the documented evidence, the reports concerning prostrations before Tasleem are more sound and proper. – Muhammed bin Ismail AsSanani in Subul us-Salam.

²⁸⁵ ‘Risaalah fi Sujood as-Sahw’ by Sheikh Muhammed Saaleh al-Uthaymeen.
²⁸⁶ It has two meanings, firstly in case of doubt, one should base it on the least number, i.e. in case of being uncertain as to whether one has prayed three or four rak’ahs should count it as three as this is nearest to certainty. Secondly one should do according to what he is predominantly sure about. (One may be guided according to his view which predominantly tilts towards certainty) - Muhammed bin Ismail AsSanani in Subul us-Salam.
²⁸⁷ It means that if one has prayed five rak’ahs, it will become six including Sujood as-Sahw. It appears from the hadeeth that one should base it on the prayed exactly four, they (the two prostrations) will be humiliation for the devil.’ (Muslim)

The hadeeth generally used by some jurists regarding the obligation of Sujood as-Sahw is, Prophet ﷺ said: ‘For every forgetfulness there are two prostrations’, but this hadeeth is da’eef.\textsuperscript{288}

Some of the scholars say that if someone falls in the aforementioned three circumstances during Salaah, the Sujood as-Sahw becomes compulsory on him. And some say that if the part of the Salaah, which was forgotten, added, or omitted, was a non-compulsory action (e.g. saying qunoot) then the Sujood as-Sahw is also not compulsory. And if the action was a compulsory action (e.g. a rukoo’) then the Sujood as-Sahw, also becomes compulsory. And this is the better opinion. Allah knows Best.

Ettiquette of Sujood as-Sahw behind the Imam

As a general principle throughout AsSalaah behind the Imam, it is obligatory upon those following him to perform the prostrations of forgetfulness after him, due to the saying of the Prophet ﷺ, 'The Imam is appointed to be followed, so do not differ with him…' till he ﷺ said, '…so when he prostrates then prostrate with him…'\textsuperscript{289}

However "if the Imam gave the salutation before completion of his prayer and there were some followers who missed part of the prayer and stood up to make up what they had missed, and then the Imam remembered that there was something incomplete in his prayer that he has to make up for, so he stands to complete that – then in this case the followers who have already stood to complete what they missed have a choice between continuing to make up what they missed and then perform prostrations for forgetfulness, or return to following the Imam – and when he performs the salutation to complete what they had missed – and then prostrate for forgetfulness after the Tasleem, and this is more correct and prudent."\(^{290}\)
